POLICE BEAT

The following incidents were reported to the University Office of Public Safety and the Eugene police department May 18-23.

•The Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority, 821 E. 15th Ave., reported a burglary May 18. The house mother called the police and said a picture was stolen from the house as part of a fraternity prank. The picture was returned, but the thieves did $80 in damage to a window during the break-in.

•A 42-year-old man was cited for trespass and menacing at 7-Eleven, 590 E. Broadway, May 18. An employee called the police after the suspect began harassing customers outside of the store, according to police reports. The employee told police the suspect was intoxicated and attempting to buy beer. The suspect left the area before police arrived.

The employee called police again when the man returned to the store later the same day. On his second visit to the store, the suspect menaced the employee when the employee told him to leave the store. The man raised a bottle above his head and told the employee, "I am going to smash this through your face," and left the store. Police caught the man leaving the area and cited him.

•The University music department reported a burglary at Beall Concert Hall, 961 E. 18th Ave., May 19. The suspect pried open a metal box in the building's ticket office and took $150 in cash. There were no signs of forced entry on the building's external doors, and police have no suspects.

•Two University students were cited for noise disturbance on the 1300 block of Alder Street May 20. Police responded to the two students' apartment after receiving complaints of loud music and yelling. The police warned the pair and left the apartment. After the police left, the two men began yelling obscenities and challenged other area residents to a fight, according to police reports. Police returned a half-hour later and cited the pair.

•A University student was cited for furnishing alcohol to minors on the 700 block of East 18th Avenue May 20. Police officers observed a large party at the address and said many of the people at the party appeared to be underage. The officers stopped a 19-year-old partygoer and asked him if he had been served alcohol in the house. The partygoer said he was served and that anyone could get beer in the house. The student who lived at the address told police he kicked all of the minors out of the party and was not responsible for the people in his yard. Police cited the student and broke up the party.

•A University student was arrested for having an open container on the 1500 block of Alder Street May 21. An OPS officer observed the student walk out of a house drinking out of a cup. The officer contacted the student and said the cup was empty but smelled strongly of alcohol. After briefly talking to the officer, the student tried to run away and was caught by an EPD officer on the 1400 block of East 14th Avenue.

•The Asian-/Pacific-American Student Union, Room 21 EMU, reported a case of criminal mischief May 22. Sometime between May 14 and May 17, someone carved a swastika into a cork bulletin board outside of the union's office.

•The Beta Theta Phi fraternity, 1009 Patterson St., was cited for aggravated noise disturbance May 22. According to police reports, the fraternity was hosting a "six-way" party with five other sororities and fraternities at its house. Neighbors complained of loud music and yelling, and police cited the fraternity. The ticket was for aggravated noise disturbance, with $750 bail, because the house has had two other noise citations in the past six months.

•A University student was cited for minor in possession of alcohol and trespassing on the 1800 block of East 18th Avenue May 23. OPS officers noticed a door to an apartment complex was open and decided to go inside and investigate. Once inside, the officers found a student sleeping on the floor of the building. The student told the officers that he lived at the address, which he stated was 1480 Pearl St. The student appeared to be drunk and repeatedly told officers he was on the 1400 block of Pearl Street. The student said he believed he was at the right address even after officers took him outside and showed him street signs that said he was on the 1800 block of East 18th Avenue, according to police reports.
