Kings crown Canadiens

MONTREAL (AP) — Luc Robitaille, Montreal born and raised, has put his beloved Canadiens in early trouble in the Stanley Cup finals.

Robitaille, who used to tiptoe out of his room after bedtime to sneak a peek at the televised exploits of Guy Lafleur, Yvan Cournoyer and Ken Dryden, became a playoff hero himself Tuesday night. He scored twice, leading the Los Angeles Kings to a 4-1 victory in their first appearance in a championship game.

Kelly Hrudey made 31 saves, getting beat only when teammate Wayne Gretzky inadvertently steered a Montreal pass into the goal.

In their first 25 seasons, the Kings had never advanced beyond the second round of the playoffs.

year, as will nine players overall from the 1992-93 squad. Mills, Mack, Casey and Hare all return next year after gaining valuable experience last week in Athens.

In addition, the Ducks return senior Amy Elieff, who competed in six tournaments this season and won the Oregon State Invitational, and sophomore-to-be Christel Tomori, who averaged 78.5 in three tournaments this year.

The Ducks will host next year's NCAA championships at Oregon Golf Club in Portland.
