

STREETwise

What was the funniest moment in your summer vacation?

"The funniest thing this summer was to come to college."

SAMANTHA NICHOLLS

"Me and my best friend woke up one morning and decided to go to Southern California to play volleyball."

ERIC FEDERER
political science, junior

"I was playing paint-ball war games with a group of friends, and we were attacked by a group of guys who hit us with the paint-balls. I received one right in my mouthpiece."

undeclared, sophomore

"I worked in a restaurant where I was serving food to the customers. One day I was carrying a tray full of plates, and I spilled steak with sauce over one of the customers."

KEVIN DONNELLY
finance and economics, sophomore

"This summer I was surrounded by men who starved for bathing suits. I was working at a research station with men who hadn't seen women for decades."

CAIT COBERLY
biology, junior

"The R.A. Orientation. We did a lot of silly stuff like ice-breakers."

ERIC WERGELAND
computer science, junior
