

Everyone is telling you to get a life but it's easier said than done when the entire economy of the free world is collapsing like the proverbial house of cards and all the good jobs are being snapped-up by guys who think a CD is something you'd get at a bank if you had money. And then when you do find a job you like, the pay is only enough to buy generic peanut butter and jelly. But still, you can get a CD free just for buying avia crosstrainers from foot locker. Think of it: you can get your choice of free tunes from Musicland or Sam Goody just for getting cool shoes. So hurry. Don't let some dork who thinks U2 is a tax form get in on this deal.

*At participating stores. $16.99 value. Offer good through October 10, 1993.

foot Locker musicland Sam Goody