Ducks blow lead, lose at Cal

By Steve Mims
Oregon Daily Emerald

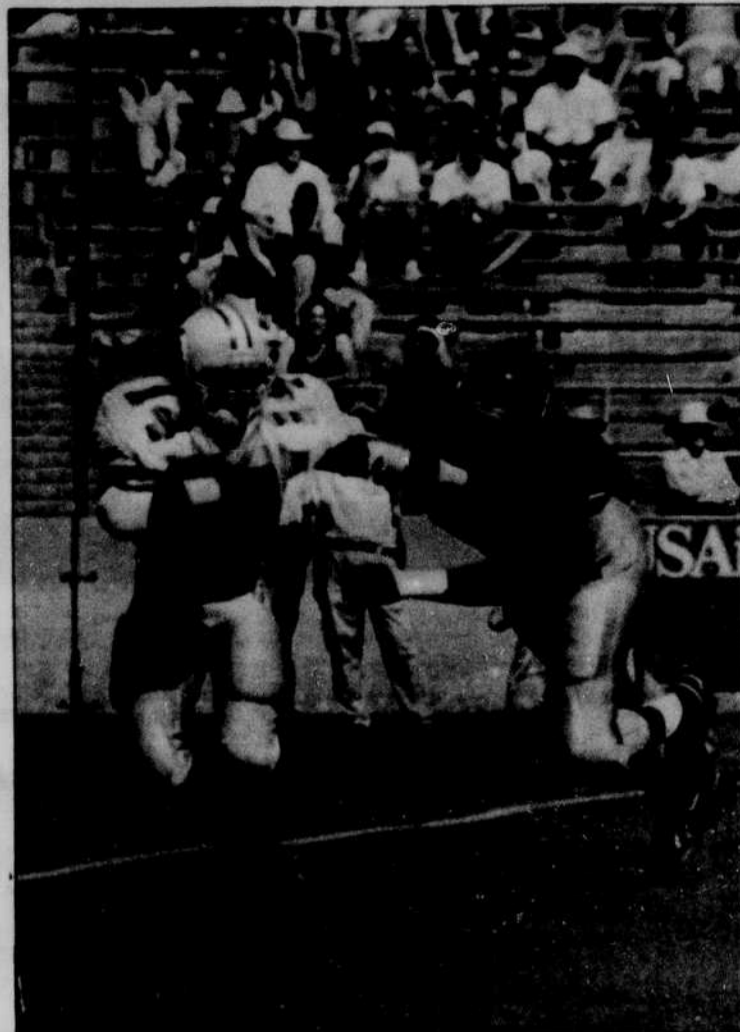

Most Oregon fans thought things were as bad as they could get last New Year's Eve when the Ducks blew a 19-point lead on their way to a 39-35 loss to Wake Forest in the Independence Bowl.

It just got worse. The Ducks (3-1) blew a 30-0 lead at California Saturday, losing to the Golden Bears 42-41 in Oregon's Pacific-10 Conference opener.

Oregon's mammoth collapse was the biggest in Pac-10 history and fell one point short of tying the NCAA record. Cal quarterback Dave Barr completed the comeback when he found receiver Iheanyl Uwaezucke for a 26-yard scoring pass with 1:17 left in the game before Mike Caldwell caught a pass for the two-point conversion.

Things looked great for the Ducks during the opening 25 minutes of the game, as they cruised to a 30-0 lead. Oregon marched 94 yards on its first drive before quarterback Danny O'Neil found receiver Dameron Ricketts for a 22-yard touchdown.

California turned the ball over on its next two possessions and Oregon responded with touchdown passes from O'Neil to receiver Derrick Deadwiler and
