DUCK FOOTBALL

PREVIEW

"Willie McGinest is one of the finest players in the nation at any position," Brooks said. "He has great speed and strength and is aggressive. We have to know where he is lined up for each play and do things different than in the past to account for him."

The Ducks were hurt by injuries again last week, most notably senior fullback Juan Shedrick, who injured his elbow. Shedrick, considered by many to be the best blocking fullback in the Pac-10, will definitely miss this weekend's game and could be out for the season.

"We have more to replace than just a blocker,"

Brooks said. "He was having his finest year. We will play Pulou Malepeai, Dwayne Jones and Dan Meade at fullback, and we could play our two-halfback offense more."

Tailback Ricky Whittle aggravated his groin injury in practice Tuesday, and tailbacks Sean Burwell (ankle) and Dino Philyaw (hip) are also hurting, but should play Saturday. Linebacker David Massey's foot is in a protective boot after injuring his ankle last week and is listed as doubtful by Brooks, as are center Tim DeGroote (knee), cornerback Eugene Jackson (ankle) and receiver Kory Murphy (knee).

Compounding Oregon's problems is a recent lack of success against the Trojans. Oregon is 1-14-1 against USC since 1971.
