

Huskies come back to beat Cal

BERKELEY, Calif. (AP) — The Washington Huskies are doing their best to make this a season to remember, even if sanctions against the program have already eliminated them from the Rose Bowl race.

Through all of the turmoil, the Huskies are putting together a successful season, and they remain a force in the national rankings. They also showed in Saturday's gritty 24-23 win over California that they could very well have a say in who ultimately represents the Pacific-10 Conference in the Rose Bowl.

Washington overcame seven turnovers and a 23-10 deficit when Damon Huard, who threw four interceptions, recovered to throw two touchdown passes around a successful on-sides kick in the final 2:06 for the victory.

"We're on a mission this year and we couldn't quit," said Napoleon Kaufman, whose 4-yard touchdown run was part of a 21-0 run by Washington in the second half.

The Huskies, the conference representative in the last three Rose Bowls, are determined to show the rest of the league that they still must reckon with them.

Cal's loss to Washington was its 13th straight to the Huskies dating to 1977. It may have been the most painful because it broke Cal's bid for its best start since 1950 and denied the Bears a chance to solidify their conference standing.

"Washington is THE team we wanted to beat," Cal quarterback Dave Barr said. "We'd be over the edge if we beat them. We didn't do it."

Cal linebacker Jerrott Willard said the loss was disappointing, but he expressed confidence the Bears would rebound.

"Washington executed real well on those last couple of drives and you can't take that away from them," Willard said. "We lost to a great team. But I think our team will reload and come back strong. I don't think we're going to go into the tank by any means."

The Bears will have to heal physically as well as mentally. Tailback Lindsey Chapman missed the game with an ankle sprain, safety Eric Zomalt suffered a knee strain during the game and Barr bruised his right shoulder.

UCLA 68 Brigham Young 14

PASADENA, Calif. (AP) — Wayne Cook threw a school record-tying four touchdown passes in the first half — three to J.J. Stokes — and UCLA sacked BYU quarterbacks 11 times as the 25th-ranked Bruins overwhelmed the No. 19 Cougars 68-14 Saturday night.

Brigham Young (4-1) was simply no match for the Bruins, who handed the Cougars the worst defeat in school history, surpassing Texas A&M's 65-14 triumph over BYU in the 1990 Holiday Bowl.

The 68 points were the most for the Bruins since they beat Stanford 72-0 in 1954.

Cook threw a 15-yard TD pass to Stokes in the first quarter and TD passes of 19 and 3 yards to Stokes and 59 yards to Kevin Jordan in the second period as the Bruins built a 40-0 lead before halftime.

Cook completed 12 of 23 passes for 170 yards before leaving the game late in the third quarter.

Jamir Miller was credited with 4 of UCLA's 11 sacks, an unofficial school record surpassing the nine sacks the Bruins recorded against Washington State two years ago.

Oregon State 42 Pacific 7

CORVALLIS, (AP) — Red-shirt freshman Rahim Muhammad, who was quarterbacking the scout team three weeks ago, came off the bench and guided the Beavers (3-3) to a 42-7 non-conference victory over Pacific (1-4).

Oregon got back on the scoreboard by using a trick play for the second week in a row. Oregon had the ball at the six yard line, when O'Neil handed off to Sean Burwell on what appeared to be a sweep. Instead, the senior running back threw the ball to McLemore, who was alone in the back of the end zone, for the touchdown. The Ducks attempted a two-point conversion by faking the extra point, but the Trojans reacted quickly and stopped it to retain a 14-13 lead.

Neither team could manage a score in the third quarter, although Oregon appeared to have a chance to do so when fullback Dwayne Jones fumbled at the USC 31 yard line, and Trojan safety Sammy Knight pounced on the ball to end Oregon's threat.

"I thought we were in position to win at halftime," Brooks said. "The turning point of the game came when it looked like we had a first down, but we fumbled the ball. USC took control of the game at that point and we were swimming upstream."

After kicking a field goal, USC got the ball back in great position when linebacker Jeff Kopp blindsided O'Neil, forcing a fumble that was recovered at the Oregon five yard line by linebacker Willie McGinest.

"I never saw him," O'Neil said in reference to Kopp. "I felt him at the end and I should have stepped up, I was probably too deep; it's frustrating."

USC scored three plays later when Johnson found Morton, who once again beat double coverage, in the corner of the end zone to give the Trojans a 24-13 lead with 12:13 left in the game.

"I bothered (Johnson) enough to tell him to throw it no matter what kind of coverage there was," Morton said. "He threw it perfect. If he had thrown it a split second later, it would have gotten hit or I would have gotten hit."

The Ducks still had time to try and mount a comeback, but USC's defense stepped up and the Ducks kept shooting themselves in the foot. Oregon's next drive ended when O'Neil under-threw Dameron Ricketts, and USC's Jason Sehorn intercepted his fifth pass of the year.

The Ducks got a couple breaks midway through the fourth quarter when USC kicker Mike Salmon missed a 24-yard field goal, and an apparent interception by Trojan cornerback John Herpin was ruled incomplete. The Ducks failed to take advantage and gave the ball back to USC when tight end Willy Tate was hit by Salmon, causing a fumble that was picked up by the Trojans.

Oregon's final hope came to an end when O'Neil's pass to McLemore was intercepted by Jason Oliver with 1:08 left in the game.

"They did a good job of putting pressure on me and covering people," O'Neil said. "They were faster than I expected them to be."

O'Neil completed 24 of 36 passes for 297 yards, and McLemore had his best college game, catching seven of those passes for 102 yards. The Ducks were unable to run the ball effectively, gaining only 88 yards on the ground, with Burwell picking up 68 himself. Ricky Whittle and Dino Philyaw, both limited by injuries, had only three rushes combined.

The Ducks, who appeared to be on their way to a 4-0 start to the season just nine days ago, are now 3-2 and must regroup before next Saturday's game at Arizona State.

Pass it on.
