X-country to host Drenth Memorial

The Oregon cross-country teams will have the opportunity to show off a little for the hometown folks when they host the Jeff Drenth Memorial at Alton Baker Park in Eugene Saturday.

The women's squad, after finishing second to top-ranked Arkansas two weeks ago at the Sundodger Invitational, have moved up to the seventh spot in the national rankings. Oregon's toughest competition should come from 15th-ranked Nebraska, but other strong teams include Wake Forest, Weber State and Pacific-10 Conference rivals Washington.

Men's coach Bill Dellinger has only run his top team once this season, but was pleased with the team's performance at the highly-competitive Mountain West Classic. Karl Keska just missed cracking the top 20, and Tracy Hollister and Rick Cantwell managed to finish in the top 50.

This weekend, Oregon will need strong performances from those three if it expects to move up from its current ranking of 14th in the national poll. Tenth-ranked Portland and 16th-ranked Washington will also enter teams in the men's race.

The meet begins at 10 a.m. with the women's race, followed by the men's race at 10:45.

The Oregon volleyball team, 1-6 in the Pac-10 Conference and 4-11 overall, play at California on Friday and at Stanford on Saturday.

Oregon head coach Gerry Gregory said he likes the Ducks' chances against Cal, which is 0-

The Oregon men's basketball team has received a verbal commitment from one of the top centers in California.

Don Lugo High School's head coach Steve Hebert said Mike Carson, a 6-foot-11 center is planning to enroll at Oregon next fall. Carson, who was voted one of the top 10 center recruits in the nation by one publication, chose Oregon over Utah, Utah State and Penn State after visiting Eugene over the weekend.

Carson averaged 13 points, 8.7 rebounds and 2.4 block shots a game last season for Don Lugo, and never fouled out, earning first-team all-league honors.

"Michael just turned 17," Hebert said. "I don't think there's a limit to his potential. I think Oregon may have just got one of the best kept secrets in Southern California. He's not a big lumbering guy. He's extremely agile and he runs the floor well. Oregon got a great one."

Hebert added that Carson is a dedicated student as well, scoring 990 on the SAT.

Because of NCAA recruiting regulations, Oregon head coach Jerry Green is not allowed to comment on Carson.

The Oregon women's golf team continued its strong play, shooting 305 in the final round to finish in a tie for third at the Ithandfeldt Invitational Wednesday in Redmond, Wash.

The Ducks who are ranked ninth in the country shot 918 as a team, putting them behind only San Jose State and Stanford, who are tied for third in the nation. Oregon beat Oklahoma, also tied for third in the nation, and seventh-ranked Arizona.

Karly Mills led the Ducks with an 11-over-par 227 for the three-round event, putting her in 11th place. Teammates Shannon Hare and Cappy Mack also continued their steady play, finishing one shot behind Mills in a tie for 16th place.
