

ARIZONA

Continued from Page 13

142 of them on the ground — against Stanford, ranked last in the Pac-10 in rushing defense and total defense.

UCLA 39, Washington 25

PASADENA, Calif. (AP) — UCLA's J.J. Stokes caught four touchdown passes from Wayne Cook on Saturday, including a school-record 95-yarder as the 19th-ranked Bruins overcame a horrible start to overpower 22nd-ranked Washington 39-25 for their fourth straight victory.

UCLA (4-2 overall, 2-1 in the Pac-10) fell behind 15-0 after just 6:32 of play before Cook and Stokes got it going. The two have teamed up for 10 scoring passes in the past three games.

"I have never been on a roll like this in my life," said Stokes, a 6-foot-4, 214-pound junior. "For the most part, they must have felt like they could cover me one-on-one."

That, the Huskies couldn't do, at least very well.

UCLA hadn't done a thing offensively before Cook and Stokes teamed up for the 95-yarder — the longest offensive scrimmage play in school history — on the final play of the first quarter.

The touchdown trimmed Washington's lead to 15-7 and, obviously, got the Bruins going.

"JJ's run blew some air into us," UCLA coach Terry Donahue said. "He is a fantastic athlete. As a freshman, he was gangly, but now he has grown into his body and become a dominant football player."

Cook and Stokes also teamed up on an 18-yard scoring pass late in the second quarter, a 22-yarder late in the third period, and a six-yarder with 8:42 left in the game.

Cook completed 22 of 35 passes for 294 yards with two interceptions and Stokes had 10 receptions for 190 yards.

PAC-10 STANDINGS

	PAC-10	OVERALL	NEXT
Arizona	3-0-0	6-0-0	Washington St.
Washington State	3-1-0	5-2-0	at Arizona
USC	3-1-0	4-3-0	at Notre Dame
UCLA	2-1-0	4-2-0	at Oregon St.
Washington	2-1-0	4-2-0	Oregon
California	2-2-0	5-2-0	Bye
Oregon	1-2-0	4-2-0	at Washington
Oregon State	1-3-0	3-4-0	UCLA
Arizona State	0-3-0	2-4-0	at Stanford
Stanford	0-3-0	2-4-0	Arizona St.

USC 34, Oregon State 9

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Johnnie Morton set a Pac-10 career receiving record and caught three touchdown passes from Rob Johnson to lead USC to a 34-9 victory Saturday over Oregon State.

The Beavers (3-4, 1-3 Pac-10) did not complete a pass in the game, with freshman Rahim Muhammad starting because of injuries to the first- and second-string quarterbacks. Muhammad was 0 for 5 as Oregon State lost to USC (4-3, 3-1) for the 20th consecutive time, dating back 26 years.

The heavily favored Trojans led 13-6 at halftime and pulled away on a pair of Johnson-to-Morton touchdown passes in the third quarter.

Morton, a senior, made seven catches for 157 yards and now has 2,560 career receiving yards. That topped the previous conference record of 2,517 yards by Stanford's Ken Margerum in 1977-80.

Morton, a fleet 6-foot, 190-pounder, snapped a 6-6 tie when he took a short pass from Johnson and scored on a 23-yard play 5:15 into the second quarter.

Johnson, who was 12 of 19 for 196 yards, threw a 49-yard touchdown pass to Morton on the second play of the third quarter to stretch the lead to 20-6. Five minutes later, Johnson threw a 37-yarder.

Washington State 34, California 7

PULLMAN, Wash. (AP) — Heart in his throat, Shawn Deeds let his play do the talking in the battle of the backups.

"To be totally honest with you, that first ball I threw, I was really nervous," the Washington State backup quarterback admitted after leading the Cougars to a 34-7 Pacific-10 Conference upset of No. 21 California on Saturday.

Deeds stepped in and showed his patience paid off when Mike Pattinson went down to injury. Washington State (5-2 overall, 3-1) built a 24-0 halftime lead with a mixture of Deeds passes and running by Kevin Hicks, who carried 25 times for 135 yards.

California (5-2 overall, 2-2 Pac-10) played without starter Dave Barr, who suffered a separated right shoulder and thumb injury last week against Washington.

Sophomore Kerry McGonigal started for California, completing 10 of 27 for 107 yards and one touchdown. He was intercepted once and sacked twice by Cougars defensive end DeWayne Patterson.

Duck Volleyball swept at California, Stanford

□ Oregon plays well, but loses at Stanford and California

By Scott Simonson
Oregon Daily Emerald

The Oregon volleyball team continues losing, but the latest losses looked a little prettier than most.

The Ducks dropped matches to California and Stanford in the Bay Area this weekend, lowering their record to 1-8 in the Pacific-10 Conference and 4-13 overall.

Oregon's match with Cal Friday night was one of its closest of the season. It was only the second time Oregon has played a match of four games or more against a conference opponent this year.

Cal jumped out to a 15-12, 12-15, 15-7 lead, but the Ducks fought back in the fourth game, winning 15-9. Cal won the closely played, decisive fifth game 19-17.

The Ducks are now 0-3 in five-set matches this season.

Despite losing the match, the Ducks had some positives to point to on the stat sheet. Oregon out-hit the Golden Bears .211 to .198 in the match. Swing hitter LaReina Woods amassed 23 kills, a season high for Oregon. Quick hitter Angee Henderson tied a season high with three solo blocks.

Swing hitter Amy McNeel also had a big match. Her 25 digs were the most by a Duck this year. She also recorded 13 kills and led Oregon with a .275 hitting percentage.

The Ducks, tied for ninth in the Pac-10, had expected a close match with Cal, which had been winless in conference play before defeating both Oregon and Oregon State this weekend. The Ducks' match with Stanford, second place in the Pac-10, was more of a surprise.

Oregon lost in consecutive games, but the match wasn't a complete rout. The Ducks made a very respectable showing Saturday against the Cardinal, ranked third nationally before this weekend's matches.

Stanford won 16-14, 15-12, 15-10 in what may have been Oregon's best match of the year against a nationally ranked opponent.

The Ducks hit only .031 in the second game and .029 in the third game, contributing to a .086 hitting percentage for the match. However, Oregon was able to keep the match close by holding Stanford to a .186 hitting percentage.

Swing hitter Kalie Kerr posted a .374 hitting percentage to help lead the Ducks.

"We fought hard and had a real chance to win," Oregon head coach Gerry Gregory said after the Stanford match. "Karissa Meith was a real key for us offensively. She had 12 kills and two of our six aces."

"Our serving as a team was pretty good, and we out-blocked them. Our hitting percentage was down, but that was largely due to the play of No. 3 Stanford," he said. "We played two good matches this week."

Oregon faces another road trip before its next matches at McArthur Court. The Ducks play USC and UCLA, both ranked in the top five nationally going into this weekend's action, Friday and Saturday.

The Ducks then return home for matches against Arizona Oct. 29 and Arizona State Oct. 30.

Oregon Daily Emerald

Classifieds

CALL 346-4343 BEFORE 1 p.m. TODAY TO PUT US TO WORK FOR YOU TOMORROW!

CLASSIFIED POLICIES

Deadlines

Line Ads: 1 p.m., one business day prior to insertion.
Display Ads: 1 p.m., two business days prior to insertion.

Errors/Refunds

Please check your ad! The ODE will run a classified ad one additional day as a result of any typographical error that changes the meaning of the ad, if reported by 1PM. Refunds will be limited to credits only. No cash refunds will be issued after the ad deadline. Credits must be used within 6 months of issue.

100 BIRTHDAY GREETINGS

Happy 21st Birthday Kimiel
Love, Wally, GKK, Doobie & West

101 AT YOUR OWN RISK

GOOD ADVICE-ANY SUBJECT
$2 plus SASE
P.O. Box 3515, Eugene, OR 97403

103 GREEK HAPPENINGS

Tri Delta would like to congratulate its newest members:
Jenn D. and Gina L. Love, Your sisters

CLASSIFIED TRAVEL

ATTN: Students Agencies Ticket Holders Tour Groups Explorers
✓Category 195
YOUR CAMPUS CONNECTION:
Oregon Daily Emerald
346-4343

BULLREGARD

WHAT'CHA DOING WOODY?
JUST SITTING HERE ON 13TH STREET TRYING TO ENJOY MY COFFEE

WHY AREN'T YOU DRINKING THE COFFEE?

PEOPLE KEEP DROPPING CHANGE IN MY CUP

Doonesbury

YOU'RE IN BED ALREADY, HONSY?
YEAH, MOM, I GOT SWITCHED TO THE MORNING SHIFT...

I HAVE TO GET UP AT FOUR NOW. I HARDLY EVER SEE MIKE ANYMORE.
WHAT TIME DOES HE GO TO BED?

WHO KNOWS? HE STAYS UP HALF THE NIGHT PARTYING WITH HIS NEW ELECTRONIC FRIENDS ON THE INTERNET...

Hey, let's go find an empty file.
Shouldn't we mix a little first?

