POLICE BEAT

The following incidents were reported to the University Office of Public Safety and the Eugene police department Oct. 11-20.

- A theft was reported on Franklin Boulevard and East 11th Avenue Oct. 11. According to police reports, 96 sheets of contact paper were stolen out of a locker. The paper was worth $55 and was going to be used for photography.
- A $300 bicycle was reported stolen on the 900 block of East 19th Avenue Oct. 13.
- A bicycle was reported stolen from 14th Avenue and University Street Oct. 14. According to police reports, a female student had locked her bike at Gerlinger Hall and came back and found her bike stolen. The bike was worth $379.
- A student reported a $100 bicycle stolen on the 1300 block of East 15th Avenue Oct. 14. According to police reports, the student had locked the bike outside a dorm for a period, and upon returning, he found the bike was gone.
- A student got a citation for prohibited fireworks on the 1500 block of Hilyard Street Oct. 16. According to police reports, an officer observed a group of men that was tearing down street signs between 17th Avenue and Ferry Street. The men took off when they saw the officer, but another officer managed to stop them and found prohibited fireworks in of the men's pockets.
- A 21-year-old male was cited for prohibited noise disturbance on the 300 block of East 18th Avenue Oct. 16. According to police reports, an officer responded to a loud stereo, which was more than 100 feet from the house the male lived in. When the officer wanted to speak to the male, the music was so loud it was impossible to get the male's attention.
- A 19-year-old male was cited for driving under the influence and careless driving on 14th Avenue and Kincaid Street Oct. 16.
- A female student reported her wallet stolen on the 1500 block of Kincaid Street Oct. 16. According to police reports, she left her backpack in one of the campus buildings and returned after 15 minutes, finding the wallet stolen. The wallet contained a small amount of money and some identification cards.
- A second-degree theft and a criminal mischief of a vehicle were reported on 15th Avenue and Moss Street Oct. 16. According to police reports, a female student found her roof-rack stolen and damage to the roof of her car. The loss amounted to $500.

- A 20-year-old male Lane Community College student was issued a citation for minor falsely representing age and using an invalid driving license on the 1900 block of East 11th Avenue Oct. 16. According to police reports, the student had altered his driving license to be able to buy beer.
- A second-degree burglary was reported on the 700 block of East 19th Avenue Oct. 17. According to police reports, a suspect broke into a house and stole two bicycles, each worth $600.
- Two transients were each issued a citation for animal neglect on the 1600 block of West 16th Avenue Oct. 18. According to police reports, an officer arrived at the premises after a phone call about barking dogs. The dogs were locked in a Volkswagen bus and had been unattended for a long time. The dogs had not been provided food or water, and the officer was about to call animal control when the owners arrived. One of the owners was extremely intoxicated and was issued a citation for minor in possession of alcohol.
- Two University students were arrested for criminal trespass on 13th Avenue and Alder Street Oct. 19. According to police reports, the two students were inside of the 7-Eleven store to buy hot pretzels. When the clerk told them that they did not sell pretzels, they refused to leave.
- A University professor reported his parking permit sticker stolen from the parking lot on 14th Avenue and Alder Street Oct. 19. The parking permit was worth $108.
- A 19-year-old student was cited for minor in possession and false information to the police on the 1400 block of Alder street Oct. 19. According to police reports, the student was contacted when walking around intoxicated. The student didn't show the officer any identification, but the officer saw that the student had his wallet on him and asked to see it. The wallet included two different IDs, and the student admitted that one of the identifications was his brother's, which he used to buy alcohol with. The student was taken into jail for aggressive conduct.
