

POLICE BEAT

The following incidents were reported to the University Office of Public Safety and the Eugene police department Oct. 27 to Nov. 2.

- A 36-year-old male was arrested for criminal trespass, harassment and resisting arrest on the 800 block of East 13th Avenue Oct. 27. According to police reports, the male was resisting a request to leave Guido's, where he was walking around asking for money to buy a drink. When he was arrested for trespassing, he refused to be removed from the area and grabbed the arm of one of the officers, yelling that the officers had assaulted him. The officers had to use pepper spray, since the man was starting a fight.
- A student reported a theft from Esslinger Hall Oct. 27. According to police reports, the student had put his backpack in the hallway outside Esslinger during a volleyball game and found his wallet was stolen after the game was over. The wallet included a driver's license, a checkbook, identification card and $10.
- An attempted burglary was reported on the 1000 block of Hilyard Street Oct. 27. According to police reports, a person attempted to break into the Alpha Phi sorority by breaking the back door open.

- A $300 bicycle was reported stolen on the 1500 block of East 13th Avenue Oct. 27. According to police reports, the victim had left the bike unlocked in the bike rack outside of Oregon Hall for a short time. When she returned to pick it up, it was gone.
- A $600 teak bench was reported stolen from the education building annex Oct. 28.
- A criminal mischief was reported from the Delta Gamma sorority Oct. 28. According to police reports, somebody pulled up bushes, causing $500 worth of damage.
- A student reported a burglary at the 2100 block of West 18th Avenue Oct. 29. According to police reports, somebody broke a window, entered and took $940 worth of property, including train tickets, a camera and a purse with ID cards and a checkbook.
- A 42-year-old male was cited for carrying a concealed weapon on the 700 block of East 13th Avenue Oct. 30. According to police reports, police officers were called by a woman who was complaining about a man who was standing on the street naked, and when the officers arrived, they found a 50-inch knife on him.
- The Alpha Phi sorority reported $200 worth of damage after discovering plants pulled out and damaged.
- A criminal mischief was reported from the Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity Oct. 30. According to police reports, $200 worth of damage was done when two windows were broken.
- The Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity reported a telephone harassment call Oct. 30. According to police reports, the caller said, "This is Sigma Nu. We are going to kick your ass. You are going to end up in a hospital." The victim feared for his life, but he couldn't identify the voice.
- A 25-year-old male was cited for prohibited nudity on 13th Avenue and Alder Street Oct. 30. According to police reports, a female officer saw the subject against the wall with his penis exposed.

- Three male students were cited for assault and minor in possession of alcohol at the University Inn Oct. 31. According to police reports, two fraternities were involved in a fight, throwing beer bottles at each other.
- Seven people, four of them students, were cited for minor in possession of alcohol on 17th Avenue and Alder Street Oct. 31.
- A 20-year-old male was cited for minor in possession of alcohol on 14th Avenue and Patterson Street Oct. 31.
- Two female students were cited for minor in possession of alcohol on 14th Avenue and Patterson Street Oct. 31.
- A 21-year-old male transient was arrested for shoplifting at the University Bookstore and giving false information to the police Nov. 1. According to police reports, the man stole a notebook and a pen, worth a total of $2.43, and then gave a false name to the police.

— Compiled by Susanne Steffens

ET ALS

MEETINGS

Unwanted Sexual Behavior International Issues Committee will meet today from 3:30 to 4:30 p.m. in EMU Century Room F. For more information, call 346-1091.

Habitat for Humanity will meet tonight at 7 in EMU Cedar Room A. For more information, call 485-4983.

Returning Students Association will meet today from 5 to 6 p.m. in EMU Room 27. For more information, call 346-4305.

Student Projects Board of Directors will meet today from 5 to 6 p.m. in EMU Century Room D. For more information, call 346-2859.

Public Interest Science Conference will meet with organizers tonight at 6 in Room 202 Cascade. For more information, call 346-1324.

Family Center will meet on the subject of general membership today from 12 to 1 p.m. in EMU Room 23. For more information, call 346-0651.

Hawaii Club will meet and have a lu'au tonight at 7 in the EMU Fir Room. For more information, call 345-1760.

RELIGION

Restoration Campus Ministry will present a roundtable discussion on the Bible, the nuclear family and family values today at noon in EMU Century Room D. For more information, call 726-5480.

MISCELLANEOUS

Oregon Humanities Center will present Mark Johnson, professor and philosophy chairman at Southern Illinois University, to speak on "The Imaginative Basis of Thought" today at 4 p.m. in the Gerlinger Alumni Lounge. The lecture will be followed by a reception. For more information, call 346-3934.

Southeast Asian Studies will conduct a Southeast Asian resources orientation today from 12:30 to 1:30 p.m. at the Knight Library reference area. For more information, call 346-1521.

Archaeological Institute of America will present "Looking at Pompeii: Urban Structure and Community in a Roman Town," an archaeological lecture illustrated with slides, tonight at 8 in Room 166 Lawrence. For more information, call 346-4071.

Career Planning and Placement will conduct "Preparing your Curriculum Vitae," a free workshop for graduate students, today from 12 to 1 p.m. in EMU Cedar Room A. For more information, call 346-3235.

Law conference addresses crime

Students are invited to a "Drugs and the Law" conference Thursday through Saturday at the Lane County Fairgrounds.

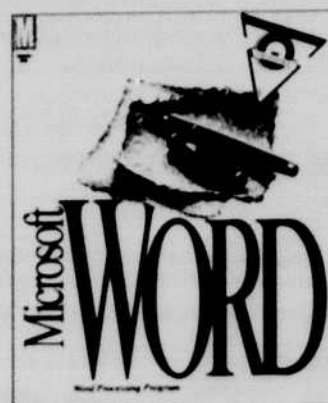

The conference is sponsored by the University's Substance Abuse Prevention Programs and will address crime, law and sociopathic behavior. Vincent Bugliosi, who helped prosecute Charles Manson, is scheduled to speak at the conference.

Thursday's program begins at 8 p.m. and is free to the public. Students can register to earn two credits for the Friday and Saturday programs. A $40 per credit fee will be charged and students may register at the conference. For more information, call 346-3397.

Prepare for class with Microsoft software for the Macintosh or PC and save big time!

When you prepare for class with Microsoft® software, you're in for a double surprise. Microsoft software will save you time and money. Our academic-priced products for the Macintosh® and PC contain the same core software as their retail counterparts—you get the power to write stunning papers, plan brilliantly balanced budgets, maintain a comprehensive research database, develop dynamic presentations, and succeed in programming class—and they cost up to 70 percent less!

What's more, Microsoft academic-priced products for both the Apple® Macintosh and the PC are powerful, yet easy to learn and use—together. So stop by and see how preparing for class really could take on a whole new meaning!

$79 for Mac
$125 for Windows

$99

$125 for Mac
$125 for Windows

Plus Excel/Word Pack, Money, Works, Office, Powerpoint, Access, and more...

Microcomputer Support Center

202 Computing Center
Monday-Friday
9am-5pm
346-4402

Microsoft is a registered trademark of Microsoft Corporation. Apple and Macintosh are registered trademarks of Apple Computer, Inc. All prices subject to change.