At last year's Ad Team fundraiser, journalism professor Alan Stavitsky took a pie in the face. This year, professors from the business, economics, science and music departments will put their mug on the line.

Ad Team annual event creams best professors

Are you stressed out about Finals Week? Have you ever wanted to throw a pie into the face of your "favorite" professor? Come to the EMU Courtyard tomorrow at noon, and you might get your wish.

Ad Team is sponsoring its third-annual pie tomorrow to raise money for its advertising competitions. For two weeks, Ad Team has been collecting donations from students and faculty. Today is the last day to bring the most wanted professors to justice by donating money in the respective department offices or in 211 Allen Hall.

Professors from the business, economics, science and music departments have graciously agreed to take a pie in the face when their personal earnings break the $100 mark, and the professor with the most money will get a chocolate cream pie. You can also be the lucky person that gets to throw the pie. Buy a ticket for 25 cents, and you are entered into a drawing to actually throw the pie at the professor.
