

COMMUNITY UPDATE

• The Eugene Specialized Recreation Program needs experienced skiers to volunteer to assist physically disabled people in the Alpine Adventure Ski Program. The program is offered January through March. College credit is available. For more information, call 687-5333.

• The Eugene Public Library will offer storytime sessions

every Wednesday and every other Saturday beginning Jan. 12. Storytime is free. Day care storytime is Wednesday from 10:30 to 11 a.m. Drop-in story sessions are 11 to 11:30 a.m. and 1:30 to 2 p.m. on Wednesdays and 10:30 to 11 a.m. Saturdays. Pre-registration is required for the day care session. For more information, call Maureen Manning at 687-5450.

• Friday Night Science begins this Friday at Willamette Science & Technology Center. Friday Night Science is an evening of hands-on science activities for kids ages six to 12. The program is from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. and costs $7 for non-members and $4 for members.

• Sacred Heart General Hospital will offer a program for chronically ill people and their families beginning Jan. 13. "Living with Chronic Illness" is a free eight-week discussion group that discusses the effects of long-term illness on the chronically ill and their families. Preregistration is required. For more information, call 686-7044.

• Womenspace, a shelter for battered women and their children, is offering its winter volunteer training sequence Jan. 22-24. College credit is available. Volunteer openings are available for social service advocates, children's workers, crisis intervention/hotline workers, residential program workers and Transition House volunteers. For more information, call 485-8232.

• The city of Springfield needs a newsletter editor for the Springfield Museum Committee. The position is non-paying. Applications are available at Springfield City Hall, 225 5th Ave. For more information, call 726-3700.

• John Corigliano, a nationally-known composer, will perform his Symphony No. 1 at the Eugene Symphony Orchestra's Jan. 20 performance. Corigliano's symphony is a response to the AIDS crisis and his performance will help raise funds for local HIV/AIDS programs. The Eugene Symphony Orchestra will co-host an evening of events with HIV/AIDS Resources, Inc. For more information or to purchase tickets, call 342-5088.

• The Irkutsk Philharmonic Society Ensemble of Soloists, a Siberian instrumental ensemble, will perform 7:30 p.m. Friday at the Ebbert Memorial United Methodist Church in Springfield. The concert is presented by the Springfield Arts Commission. Tickets are available at Light's for Music, 521 Main St. Tickets cost $9 for adults and $6 for students and senior citizens. For more information, call 726-3700.

"I know... that only when it is dark enough can you see the stars."

Martin Luther King, Jr.
from Letter from the Birmingham Jail, delivered April 16, 1968
Memphis, Tennessee

1994 Martin Luther King, Jr., Celebration University of Oregon January 11-24

Tuesday, January 11

Race Issues Affecting the Oregon Justice System. Associate Supreme Court Justice Edwin J. Peterson will lead a panel discussion of the implications of the year-long, discursive study of the Oregon Justice System. Members of the Task Force on Racial Issues in the Oregon Justice system joining the discussion are Portland attorneys Angel Lopez and Jeffrey Millner. Sponsored by the UO Law School. 7:00 P.M., 129 UO Law Center.

Wednesday, January 12

Campus Cultural Wars. A segment from the two-hour PBS documentary film, Campus Culture Wars will be shown and followed by an unrehearsed interactive panel of university officials, students, and journalists who will react to hypothetical situations and assess alternative ways of addressing issues of cultural and ethnic diversity at the University of Oregon. Sponsored by the UO Law School. 7:00 P.M., 129 UO Law Center.

Thursday, January 13

Commemorative Concert. Performance by members of the UO Gospel Ensemble, under the direction of John Gainer, to commemorate Martin Luther King, Jr. 1:00 P.M., Beall Concert Hall.

Race and Reporting. A panel of journalists, journalism professors, and controversies involved in mass media's coverage of race-related issues. 5:00 P.M., Allen Hall.

Civil Rights History of the South: Similarities and Contrasts with Oregon's Past. UO law professors Garrett Epps and David Schuman and PSU Black History professor Darrell Millner will present a three-part program. Epps will discuss southern journalist James J. Kilpatrick's role in shaping Virginia policy of resistance to the legal mandate of Brown v. Board of Education. Schuman will address the history of the Oregon State Constitution in regards to race relations, and Millner will examine the history of Oregon's black population. Sponsored by the UO Law School. 7:00 P.M., Walnut Room, Erb Memorial Union.

Friday, January 14

Dr. Martin Luther King's Birthday Celebration. A fund-raising dinner and dance at the Eugene Hilton featuring Joe Bean Keller and The Illusion Band. Black tie optional. Sponsored by the African-American Community Coalition. Tickets are $35 per person or $350 for a table of 10. For tickets and information, call Stephanie Cardinal, 345-5993, or Raye Jefferson, 461-3944. 6:00 P.M., cocktails; 7:00 P.M., dinner and dancing until 2:00 A.M., Eugene Hilton Hotel, Sixth Avenue and Willamette Street, downtown.

Events are free and open to the public unless otherwise noted.

In Celebration of a Dream. Western Regional Ecumenical Christian Conference (WRECCIII). Continues through January 17. Features guest speakers Birgit Kill Straight, Native American Law Forum; Peggy Nagae Lum, Seattle attorney; Marion McColm and Eric Ward from Clergy and Laity Concerned in Eugene. Also includes worship, workshops, and music. Coordinated by the Wesley Foundation and Koinonia Center, Campus Ministries. Open to all young adults and students. For schedule details, call WRECC, 346-4694.

Saturday, January 15

In Celebration of a Dream. Western Regional Ecumenical Christian Conference (WRECCIII). Continues through January 17. See earlier listing. For schedule details, call WRECC, 346-4694.

Annual Candlelight Vigil to reinforce the Dream. Reception follows vigil. For more information call Nichole Muhammad, director, Black Student Union. 6:00 P.M., meet in front of Johnson Hall. Reception in Gerlinger Hall immediately following vigil.

Honoring our New Ethnic Youth (H.O.N.E.Y) presents a family style dinner. Bring salads, desserts, and beverages; entree provided. After-dinner program featuring D.J. Patrick Okonkwo, Dance Africa, and Randy Ross with the People's Choice band. Dinner at 6:00 P.M., Central Presbyterian Church, 1475 Ferry. For more information call, 342-3908.

Sunday, January 16

Memorial Concert. Bethel Temple Choir will offer a free public concert honoring Dr. Martin Luther King. 3:30 P.M., Lobby, Hult Center for the Performing Arts, Seventh Avenue and Willamette Street, downtown.

In Celebration of a Dream. Western Regional Ecumenical Christian Conference (WRECCIII). Conference continues through January 17. See earlier listing. For schedule details, call WRECC, 346-4694.

Monday, January 17

A Pioneer in Peaceful Protest. Keynote speaker, Rev. Allidees N. Beckham, Ph.D., pastor, St. Mark, C.M.E. Church. Master of ceremonies, the honorable Bobby Green, Sr., Eugene City Councilor. Eugene Community Mass Choir directed by John Gainer. For more information, call 687-1658. Doors open 6:30 P.M., program at 7:00 P.M., Hult Center for the Performing Arts, downtown. Admission is free, tickets are not required.

World Religions Day Celebration. Vision Through Race Unity. For more information call ASUO program director, Kenee Fahnbulleh, 346-0622. 11:00 a.m., Gerlinger Alumni Lounge, Gerlinger Hall.

Chronicles of the Struggle. Documentary film festival chronicles the struggle for civil rights for people of color in the United States. For information, call Teri Lemman 346-1561. Film schedule to be announced. ERB Memorial Union.

In Celebration of a Dream. Western Regional Ecumenical Christian Conference (WRECCIII). Conference continues through January 17. See earlier listing. For schedule details, call WRECC, 346-4694.

Tuesday, January 18

Race Matters. UO President Myles Brand will lead a reading group discussion on a selection of essays from the book, Race Matters, by Dr. Cornell West. A panel of faculty and students will also participate in the noon-time book discussion and invite commentary from the audience. Noon, Walnut Room, ERB Memorial Union.

From Protest to Civil Disobedience. Legal scholars, including Law Dean Dave Frohnmayer and UO Law Professor Robin Morris Collin, will explore the problems and guidance the First Amendment gives to people who demonstrate actively for social change. Sponsored by the UO Law School. 7:00 P.M., 129 UO Law Center.

Wednesday, January 19

Training to Actualize the Dream. Sponsored by the Institute for African-American Mobilization. Training free for African-Americans and their allies, January 19-22. To register, call Karen Gafney, 341-4788. 9:00 A.M.-4:00 P.M., First United Methodist Church, 14th Avenue and Olive Street.

Thursday, January 20

Colorful Expressions. UO Multicultural Theater Troupe premiere campus performance will be a discussion led by Diane George, Multicultural Center program assistant. Sponsored by UO Multicultural Center. 4:00-6:00 P.M., Ben Linder Room, Erb Memorial Union.

Monday, January 24

Racial Discrimination in Bail Setting. Special guest lecturer Ian Ayers, Stanford law professor, noted for his path-breaking empirical research on discrimination against blacks will lecture on racial discrimination in bail setting. For information, call Teri Lemman 346-1561. Time to be announced, 129 UO Law Center.

Diane Wong, Event Coordinator
Martin Luther King, Jr.,
Institutional Steering Committee
University of Oregon
(503) 346-2980

ET ALS

MEETINGS

MeChA will meet today at 5 p.m. in the EMU Oak Room. For more information, call 346-3508.

Academic Advising and Student Services will conduct a National Student Exchange orientation meeting today from 12:30 to 1:30 p.m. in the EMU Walnut Room. For more information, call 346-3211.

Vietnamese Student Association will meet tonight at 6:30 in Room 301 Gerlinger. For more information, call 686-9942.

ASUO Executive will sponsor an incidental fee process review meeting today at 3 p.m. in the EMU Fir Room. For more information, call 346-3724.

International Students Association Student Leaders will meet tonight at 6:30 in the EMU Maple Room. For more information, call 346-4367.

MISCELLANEOUS

Educational Opportunities Program will conduct a workshop on incompletes today at 2 p.m. in Room 117 Fenton. For more information, call 346-3232.

Deadline for submitting Et Als to the Emerald front desk, Suite 300 EMU, is noon the day before publication. Et Als run the day of the event unless the event takes place before noon and is requested to be published earlier.

Notices of events with a donation or admission charge will not be accepted. Campus events and those scheduled nearest the publication date will be given priority. The Emerald reserves the right to edit for grammar and style.

Et Als run strictly on a space-available basis.

SKI RENTALS!

Downhill or Cross-Country

OPEN SUNDAYS 12-5PM

Berg's Ski Shop

Open Mon - Thur 10-7 • Fri - Sat 10-9
13th & Lawrence
683-1300