The eagerly awaited novel, The Bingo Palace from Louise Erdrich's brilliant series of books on contemporary Native American and Midwestern life has recently arrived.

Following the award winning previous volume, Love Medicine, and The Beet Queen and Tracks; The Bingo Palace traces Lipsha Morrissey, illegitimate son of June Kashpaw and Gerry Nanapush, on his journey through success and meaning, love and money, the future and the past.

A novel of spiritual depth, lyrical prose, and wild hope, The Bingo Palace explores the implications of the mystical element of chance in contemporary life and is sure to please all of Louise Erdrich's ardent fans as well as attract many new readers.
