

Seattle • Crater Lake • Palm Springs • Baja California • Albuquerque • Astoria • Canadian Border • New York • Disney World • Brazil • Coos Bay • Nevada • Yosemite • Hawaii • Portland • New Zealand • Yosemite Pass • Williamette Pass • Daytona Beach • Tallahassee

TRAVEL

January 25, 1994
Eugene, Oregon
Volume 95, Issue 83

MICHAEL SHINDLER/Emerald

A stunning natural attraction lies on Oregon's front door step. The Columbia River Gorge is one of Oregon's best kept secrets.

2

Tired of the small city with the night life of Mayberry? Why not head to the medium-sized metropolis that's less than two hours away?

4

From the coast to Montana, the Emerald runs down 15 places you can drive to in less than 10 hours from Eugene.

5

Need to find creative ways to pack your travel clothes? Colleen Coe, manager of Triple A, has a few suggestions.

6

If you don't have a lot of money, you probably won't be staying at the Hilton for spring break. But $350 and a little creativity will get you a long way.

7