center Bonnie Dove were combining to average more than 26 points per game, but the pair had a collective six points in 24 minutes against the Ducks. With Conway and Dove gone, Oregon was able to find room to score inside and extended its lead to 13.
Arizona cut the lead to seven near the five-minute mark, but Croshaw answered with a three-pointer to make the score 68-58. Arizona was never closer than 10 points during the remainder of the game.
