

UNIVERSITY UPDATE

• The University Trombone Ensemble and Brass Sextet will perform with the award-winning Roosevelt Middle School Choir tonight at 8 at Beall Concert Hall. Tickets are $4 for general admission and $2 for students and seniors. For more information, call 346-5678.

• Kimberle Crenshaw of the UCLA School of Law will present "The Intersection of Race, Gender and Law: Politics of Popular Culture" Tuesday at 7 p.m. in Room 138 Gilbert. The free lecture is part of the "Race Theory: Women's Voices, New Paradigms" lecture series. For more information, call Mary Romero at 346-2068.

• A lecture titled "The Myth of Eden: Environmental Catastrophes in Prehistoric Greece" will be presented Tuesday at 8 p.m. in Room 115 Lawrence. The lecture will give archaeological evidence for the environmental abuse perpetrated as far back as 8,000 years. For more information, call Steven Lowenstam at 346-4071 or C. Bennett Pascal at 343-7672.

• The Pacific Rim Gamelan, the University Indonesian orchestra, will perform Tuesday at 8 p.m. at Beall Concert Hall. Tickets are $4 for general admission and $2 for students and seniors. For more information, call 346-5678.

• Asian and Pacific studies will meet Wednesday at 11 a.m. in Room 360 Oregon Hall to discuss the International Cooperative Learning Project in Hanoi, Vietnam during summer. Students interested in applying for the program are encouraged to attend. For more information, call 346-1521.

• The video Rafting the River of the Red Ape will be presented Wednesday at noon in EMU Room 37. The video will show the first ascent of the Atlas River in Sumatra and the agony and adventure of the expedition. For more information, call 346-4365.

• Ann Hawkins, assistant professor of international studies, will give a talk on "Reconceptualizing the Notion of Sustainability: Cultural and Environmental Survival" Wednesday at 1:30 p.m. in Room 100 Hendricks. The free event is sponsored by the Program for the Advancement of Sustainable Communities. For more information, call 346-5051.

• A free University Counseling Center workshop, "How to Build a Bridge Over Troubled Water," designed to help faculty and staff respond to the emotional issues of students, will be Wednesday at 4 p.m. in the EMU Oak Room. For more information, call 346-2704.

• The Cascade Paragliding Club will present colorful slides of paragliding sites throughout Oregon Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. in EMU Room 37. The free presentation is sponsored by the University Outdoor Program. For more information, call Dan at 346-4365.

• "Drugs, Alcohol and Tobacco During Pregnancy" will be presented by JoAnne Lutz, registered nurse, Thursday at noon in the EMU Walnut Room. The free workshop is part of the "Babies and You" series sponsored by the University Child and Family Services and the March of Dimes Birth Defects Foundation. For more information call 346-3159, TDD 346-0852.

• Oregon Sen. Peter Sorenson will present a free lecture titled "Spatial Aspects of Voting in the Oregon State Senate" Thursday at 4 p.m. in Room 106 Condon. For more information, call 346-4555.

• A free winter social for all University faculty will be Thursday at 4 p.m. at the Collier House. Music, beverages and hors d'oeuvres will be provided. For more information, call 346-5268.

• The second University Queer Film Festival will begin Thursday at 7 p.m. in Room 180 PLC. New York video producer and director Catherine Saalfeld will present her newest work, Sacred Lies, Civil Truth, responding to anti-gay initiatives across the country. Tickets are $4 for University students and $5 for the general public. The festival will continue through Sunday, Feb. 20, and a festival pass for all four days is $9 for University students and $15 for the general public. Student tickets are available at the EMU Main Desk only, but general tickets are available at Mother Kali's, Baba Yaga's Dream and the EMU Main Desk. For more information, call 346-4000.

• Hank Alley, University associate professor of literature, will read from his new novel, Columbus Day, Thursday at 7:30 p.m. at the Maude Kerns Art Center. Alley will be joined by Eugene poet Brenda Shaw in the event which is sponsored by the Lane Literary Guild. For more information, call 346-2513.

• Monza Naff will present a lecture, "And I Loved Her Fiercely: Spirituality in contemporary African-American Women," Friday at noon in Room 159 PLC. The free lecture is part of the Oregon Humanities Center Work-In-Progress Series. For more information, call 346-3934.

• BRING Recycling will present a free lecture, "Worm Boxes: Accelerated Composting Techniques," Friday at noon in Room 206 Lawrence. The lecture is sponsored by the Solar Information Center, and a worm box building class will follow the lecture. Registration takes place at the lecture. For more information, call 346-3696.

• "Conversations on Curriculum: Sexualities in the University Classroom" is the subject of the InterSEXtions Symposium, which runs through Saturday. Sponsored by the University Committee on Gay, Lesbian and Bisexual Concerns, the free event will be Friday from 3 to 5 p.m. in the Gerlinger Lounge. For more information, call Jackie Balzer at 346-1142 or Mark Turner at 346-4863.

• International students will have the chance to talk with faculty members Friday at 3:30 p.m. in Room 302 Gerlinger. The event is free. For more information, call 346-1238.

• The second University Queer Film Festival will continue Friday at 7 p.m. Feb. 18 in Room 180 PLC. Nine short films will be shown. Tickets are $4 for University students and $5 for the general public. For more information, call 346-4000.

• Students can learn basic clay magic and form making during the workshop "Ceramic Animals with Carolyn Osborne-Sommer" Saturday at 10 a.m. at the University Museum of Natural History. While studying the museum's cat exhibit, students will create cat-inspired sculptures out of clay. The workshop costs $14 for non-members and $12 for members. For more information, call 346-3024.

• The InterSEXtions Symposium continues Saturday from 10 a.m. to noon and 1 to 3 p.m. in the EMU Walnut Room. Discussions at the free event include "Queer Topics: Examples of Research and courses Focusing on Diverse Sexualities" and "For People of all Sexual Orientations: The Risks and Rewards of Talking About Sexualities in the Classroom." For more information, call Jackie Balzer at 346-1142 or Mark Turner at 346-4863.

• A free question-and-answer session with media activist and video producer Catherine Saal-field will be Saturday at 3 p.m. in Room 180 PLC. Saalfeld will share her expertise in collectively producing and directing many video pieces with a broad range of subject matter.

• The second University Queer Film Festival will continue Saturday at 7 p.m. in Room 180 PLC. The two films to be shown are Forbidden Love: The Unashamed Stories of Lesbian Lives and Came Out, It Rained, Went Back in Again. Tickets are $4 for University students and $5 for general admission. For more information, call 346-4000.

• The exhibit "American Master Metalsmiths: Variety and Invention" will open Sunday at noon at the University Museum of Art. The show features the work of eight artists from the West Coast and the Midwest. Exhibits include jewelry, sculptural and vessel forms, knives and other metal work. For more information, call 346-3027.

• A collection of film clips will be presented during a lecture titled "The Construction of the Lesbian Gaze: A Historical Retrospective of Lesbians in Cinema from Silent to Modern" Sunday at 2 p.m. in Room 180 PLC. The free event will be presented by Merym Ersoz, a graduate teaching fellow for the "History of Motion Pictures" class at the University.

• The second University Queer Film Festival will present 16 short films beginning Sunday at 5 p.m. in Room 180 PLC. Tickets for the final day of the festival are $4 for University students and $5 for general admission. For more information, call 346-4000.

• The University Percussion Ensemble, directed by Jeffrey Peyton, will perform classical percussion music Sunday at 8 p.m. at Beall Concert Hall. Tickets are $4 for general admission and $2 for students and seniors. For more information, call 346-5678.

St. Thomas More
University Parish
Catholic Newman
Center

ASH WEDNESDAY Mass Schedule: 12:15; 5:30; 7:30; 9:00

Daily Mass:

Monday-Friday: 5:15 p.m.

Special Student Liturgies:

Wednesday: 9:00 p.m.

Sunday: 7:30 p.m.

343-7021
1850 Emerald Street, Eugene

Bring Your Sweetheart to Kowloons
For Valentines Day!
Monday, February 14, 1994

Prawn & Prime Rib* Dinners
for Two $19.94

from 5:00-10:00 pm (while supplies last)

call for reservations: 343-4734

*USDA CHOICE BEEF

40¢

OFF

Any Yogurt*

(*Except
small cones
and tines
Expires 2/28/94)

Campus SUBSHOP
1225 Alder
345-2434

Not valid with any other discounts or coupons.
One coupon per customer.

Study Abroad in Siena, Italy

- Intensive study of Italian at all levels
- Other liberal arts courses taught in English
- Learn more about Italy's past, present and future
- Spend one, two or three terms abroad
- Minimum 2.5 GPA required
- Earn UO credit
- Use your financial aid

Application Deadlines:

Fall term 1993: May 15 • Winter term 1994: Oct. 15
Spring term 1994: Jan. 15

For information about other study abroad opportunities around the world, please contact the Office of International Education & Exchange, 330 Oregon Hall 346-3207