EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY

Editor-in-Chief of the OREGON DAILY EMERALD

The Oregon Daily Emerald, the independent student newspaper at the University of Oregon, is currently accepting applications for the position of Editor for the 1994-95 academic year.

Eligible candidates must be either an undergraduate student at the University enrolled for a minimum of six credit hours per term in three of the four academic quarters of his or her term as Editor, or a graduate student at the University enrolled for a minimum of three credit hours per term in three of the four academic quarters of his or her term as Editor. All applicants must be in good academic standing. Prior newsroom experience required.

The Oregon Daily Emerald is published by a non-profit corporation which operates independently of the University. The primary purpose of the ODE is to provide education and training for students in all aspects of newspaper operation by serving a campus audience with news, editorial and advertising content.

The Editor of the ODE, who reports to a 10-person volunteer Board of Directors, has responsibility for all editorial operations and all editorial content of the newspaper. Term of office is June 7, 1994 through the last issue of Spring term, 1995, and is preceded by an orientation period which begins no later than May 2 and extends through June 6. This is a paid position.

Interested parties should pick up an application packet, which includes a job description, at the ODE front desk in Suite 300 EMU or call 346-5511 for more information.

Completed applications must be returned to the ODE Board of Directors in the ODE office by 5:00 p.m. Friday, April 1, 1994. An individual will be selected by the Board on April 19, 1994.

The Oregon Daily Emerald is an Equal Opportunity Employer and is committed to a culturally diverse workplace.
