

■ GROTUS

Wednesday
WOW Hall, 8:30 p.m.

Grotus is originally from San Francisco, they will play WOW with Two Minutes Hate.

- ★★★★ I'm sorry, but I hate you
- ★★★ My ex-boyfriend thinks you're no good for me
- ★★ Sorry, I'm not into rickets
- ★ Let's be friends

Rhythm

Reviews

April fool's dance promises fun, benefits community

By Kaly Soto
Oregon Daily Emerald

Costumes, door prizes. ... Sounds like Halloween, but it's not. The Clearinghouse on Human Rights and Psychiatry and the Lesbian Gay Bisexual Alliance are sponsoring the first annual April Fools' Ball at WOW Hall tonight.

The LGBA is looking to expand into the community, Alycia Dasmann, the new co-director for LGBA, said.

"We are trying to work with the other community groups," she said. "We just thought this would be a good project for expanding our target audience to more than just the campus."

The Clearinghouse on Human Rights and Psychiatry is a non-profit organization dedicated to ending psychiatric abuse.

The concert will benefit both the LGBA and the Clearinghouse on Human Rights and Psychiatry, and both groups are encouraging the community to "celebrate diversity," according to an article published in WOW Hall News by Frank Cardoza.

Performers at the ball will include Virginia Cohen, Kudana and Equinox.

Cohen will treat the audience to a set of original folk music. Cohen, a local songwriter, released her first album titled Moving Into Indigo in 1991 and her second recording is due out later this year.

Kudana, a local mirimba group will add a little international flavor to the party as the second musical guest. The band was "inspired by mirimba master Dumi Maraire," according to Cardoza's article and features Maraire's wife Mai Chi.

Finally Equinox, a "womyn's centric five piece rock band," will make its debut. The band consists of Dana Vion on rhythm guitar, Flip McLennan on lead guitar, Paul Marganian on bass, Pam Way on vocals and Paula Vadin on congas. Vion said in a telephone interview that the band was "really psyched" about their show, and they "had been practicing real hard." Following tonight's concert Equinox can also be seen on Earth Day, April 22, at WOW Hall. The band will begin work on its first recording in May.

Tonight's performance will begin at 8:30. Donations are requested on a sliding scale from $5 to $7. If you would like more information, call 484-9884.

What are the members of Kudana looking for? If you really want to know come to WOW Hall Friday night in costume and find out. Donations are encouraged.

Equinox will make their debut at the April Fool's Ball. This all womyn's group will perform some great originals and some rockin' covers in their program.

Eugene SCENE

■ ALPINE YODELING CONTEST

Life Savers is sponsoring a yodeling contest, the grand prize is a trip for two to Switzerland. If you are interested call 1-800-ALPINE and electrify the phone lines with your best yodel. The contest lasts through April 30.

Friday, April 1

April Fool's Ball
WOW Hall, 8:30 p.m.
Donations from $5 to $7

Etouffee
Good Times Cafe and Bar,
9:30 p.m.
Admission is $5

Reception for artists Jill Korynasz and Chris Johnson
Photo Zone Gallery, 5 p.m.

A Little Night Music, Tracers and The Search for Signs of

Intelligent Life in the Universe
Actors Cabaret of Eugene,
8 p.m.
Tickets are $11, $9, $7

Jellorama 1994
Maude Kerns Art Center,
7:30 p.m.
A donation of $2

Saturday, April 2

Pyramid Breakfast
Good Times Cafe and Bar,
9:30 p.m.
Admission is $5

Russia: Land of a Thousand Places
Museum of Natural History,
Noon
Admission is $1

Yngwie Malmsteen
Roseland Theater, 9 p.m.
(Portland)
Tickets are $15
This is a 21 and over show

Monday, April 4

Power, Politics and Gender in the Academy, Women's Writing and Research Experiences (lecture)

Gumwood Room, EMU,
4 p.m.
Free admission

Tuesday, April 5

Alchemy
Good Times Cafe and Bar,
9:30 p.m.
Admission is $2

Wednesday, April 6

Eugene Symphony Guild
Hult Center, 12 p.m.
Free admission

CINEMATHE PAPER

★★★★

STARRING: Michael Keaton, Glenn Close, Marissa Tomei, Randy Quaid

DIRECTOR: Ron Howard
RATING: R
RUNNING TIME: 100 min.
PLAYING AT: MacDonald

By Kaly Soto
Oregon Daily Emerald

Imagine Entertainment is responsible for a number of very good films: Parenthood, Backdraft and Far and Away, to name just a few. Now Imagine is responsible for one great film, The Paper.

Ron Howard has assembled an incredible ensemble cast for this film. Michael Keaton is brilliant as the harried journalist trying to balance family and career, as well as keep his pregnant wife (played by Marisa Tomei), who is on maternity leave from the fictional New York Sun, abreast of all the gossip at the paper.

Turn to CINEMA, Page 8