The Oregon women's track team will gear up for a two-weekend home stand by splitting up the team and sending 14 sprinters and jumpers to Texas for the Texas Relays and 17 others to Salem to for the Willamette Open this weekend.

The Ducks are coming off their worst dual meet in the history of the program when they lost 90-46 to Washington last weekend in Seattle.

"We're not used to losing and we're definitely not used to losing big," Oregon head coach Tom Heinonen said. "It has certainly helped to get our kids focused on what they have to do. We're looking at our next two meets as stepping stones for our next scoring meet."

The Ducks will return home April 16 for the Oregon Invitational before competing in the Pepsi Team Invitational the following week.

The Texas Relays begin today in Austin with competitions in various sprints, relays, jumps and throws.

In the 100, the Ducks will send senior Lisa Bedwell and sophomore Jamila Godfrey.

Bedwell and Godfrey will also compete in the 4x100 and 4x400 relays with Shawna Krasowski and Nicole Commissiong.

In the 4x800 race, the Ducks will have freshmen Christie Engesser, Vicky Fleschner and Milena Glusac along with junior

Kelly Blair and Amo Olson will compete in the high jump and Mary Gilbert and Sara Howell will go after the triple jump.

Tonia Roth and Kelsey Stellick will open the meet in the javelin and Roth will also compete in the shot put.

In Salem, freshmen Deanna Knowles and Lorilyn Mendoza will compete 100-meter race.

In the hurdle races, Alison Breedlove and Joanna Heath will compete in both the 100-meter and 400-meter hurdles, with Grace Upshaw also running in the 100-meter hurdles.

Upshaw will put in double duty, also competing in the long jump with Christine Sherwood.

In the one distance event - the 3,000 - Jill Callero, Jen Doyle, Shannon Elliot and Joni Wareham will all compete for Oregon.

Kalie Kerr and Andrea Tyn-dall will compete in the high jump, and in the throws, Chelle Ross will throw the shot and discus and Keri Esterbrook will throw the javelin.
