Oh, the

GUIT

Fans were stunned by the suicide of Kurt Cobain. Is his death the beginning of a legend or the end of an era?

It was bound to happen sooner or later.

A week ago today, our generation got its very own rock 'n' roll tragedy when Nirvana front man Kurt Cobain took his life in his Seattle home.

Cobain, never a model of stability, finally gave in to four years of unwanted fame and unwarranted rumors, leaving behind an all too brief career that saw his band become a household name almost overnight.

For the Oregon Daily Emerald

Well, it has finally arrived, the film that most of maledom has been waiting for since junior high, the film where Sports Illustrated swimsuit model Elle Macpherson (she gained 20 pounds for the role) appears naked.

While it's true that most of the audience was there for Elle alone, Sirens has much more to offer as writer-director John Duigan serves up a romantic comedy that revels in erotic scandal.

Set in the 1930s, Hugh Grant and Tara Fitzgerald star as a straight-laced British minister and his somewhat shy wife, whose visit to
