

Kirner named all-conference for fourth time

Oregon's Lee Kirner was named to the Pacific-10 Conference's Northern Division all-conference tennis team for the fourth straight year Tuesday. Kirner is the first player in Pac-10 history to receive the honor four times.

DUCK NOTES

The Laguna Beach, Calif., native has played the No. 1 position during all four years at Oregon, accumulating a 64-60-1 record to sit atop the school's list for career victories. Kirner was 19-15 this year, matching his previous season's best from 1991 and tying him for fourth on Oregon's single season victory list.

The three-time team Most Valuable Player also grabbed 13 doubles victories this season. Kirner will play in the Pac-10 Southern Division Individual Championships this weekend.

Oregon's women's tennis team had two players named to the Northern Division all-conference team.

Kara Yoshida, a junior, picked up her second all-conference team award. Yoshida played at the No. 2 position, going 11-15 in singles and adding nine doubles victories this year. Yoshida is tied for seventh on Oregon's career singles list with 45 wins. Sophomore Elise Adams was named to the team for the first time while playing at the No. 1 position for the Ducks. Adams was 8-17 in singles but teamed with senior Krissy Barger for a 15-5 doubles record. The Lake Oswego native broke Oregon's single season record for victories last year with 25.

Entries are due this Friday, April 22, for adults and next Friday, April 29, for juniors, for the University of Oregon Spring Tennis Championships.

A United States Tennis Association sanctioned event, the tournaments are conducted by the varsity men's tennis team at Oregon as fundraisers.

Adult entries must be received by 5:00 p.m. April 22, with competition beginning April 29, and junior entries are due April 29 by 5:00 p.m. for competition May 6-8.

All matches will take place at the University courts on 15th Avenue and across the street at the covered courts. Entry forms may be picked up at the Casanova Athletic Center and may be returned in person or mailed to Buzz Summers, Casanova Athletic Center, Eugene, OR, 97401. Contact Summers at 344-5897 for additional information or playing times. Match times will be determined Wednesday or Thursday the week of the tournament.

Oregon catcher Laura Schmidt was named the Hertz Car Rental/Pacific-10 Conference Softball Player of the Week for April 11-17, Commissioner Tom Hansen announced Monday. The award is Schmidt's first this season and the second of her career.

Schmidt, a senior from Sacramento, Calif., highlighted her 8-for-12 week with a dramatic two-run, two-out home run in the bottom of the tenth inning to get the Ducks past No. 10 California, 3-2. Oregon's sweep of the Golden Bears last Saturday marked the first time since 1990 that the Ducks had accomplished the feat.

In last Sunday's sweep of Western Oregon, Schmidt was 5-for-5, including a double and three RBI's. Schmidt has now hit safely in eight consecutive games.

Schmidt is currently hitting .314 with 28 RBI's, five triples, two home runs and a .495 slugging percentage. Oregon's career leader in walks (68), Schmidt is on the verge of setting three more career marks as a Duck, in the categories of triples (needs two), home runs (needs five) and RBI's (needs 10).

Oregon junior guard Jon Mitchell was named to the Pacific-10 Conference all-academic basketball team, Commissioner Tom Hansen announced Tuesday.

The 6-foot-4 native of Eugene has a 3.76 grade point average in English. Mitchell has been on the all-academic squad the past three years.

Also named to the team were Scott Didrickson of Washington, Kevin Flanagan of Arizona, Damaine Powell of USC and George Zidek of UCLA.

The Oregon club crew team is hosting the Dexter Invitational Saturday, May 7, at the Dexter reservoir. The event runs from 7:30 a.m. until noon, featuring 2000 meters of rowing involving teams from Oregon, Humboldt State, Oregon Rowing Unlimited and South Eugene High School.
