

2^{TWO} Booksignings This Week

Friday, May 20th 12:30 – 1:30 • Upstairs

Ann Packer

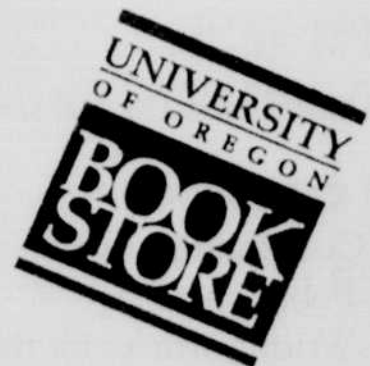

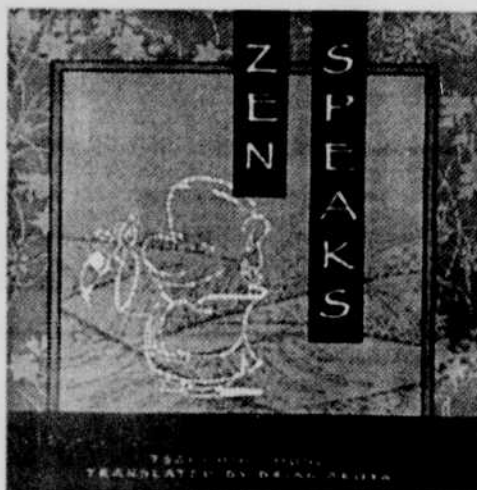

Eugene author Ann Packer will sign copies of her first collection of short stories, Mendocino and Other Stories this week. A graduate of Yale, she has been anthologized in Prize Stories 1992: The O. Henry Awards and Contemporary West Coast Stories. Mendocino and Other Stories, a powerful and promising debut, focuses on men and women in their 20s and 30s whose lives, for all their ritual calm, don't quite fall into place.

Thursday, May 19th 12:30 – 1:30 • Upstairs

Tsaih Chih Chung

One of China's most popular and bestselling writers, Tsai Chih Chung and translator Brian Bruya will be here signing copies of his latest book, Zen Speaks—Shouts of Nothingness, an illustrated adaptation of selections from various early Zen Buddhist classics. Tsai Chih Chung is a Taiwanese cartoonist and popularizer of Chinese philosophy whose books have sold over eighteen million copies and been translated in a dozen countries.
