

BEYOND POLITICS

Markets, Welfare, and the Failure of Bureaucracy

William C. Mitchell
& Randy T. Simmons

Foreword by Gordon Tullock

The Independent Institute

U of O Professor of Political Science
William C. Mitchell

will sign copies of his coauthored new book Beyond Politics, Markets, Welfare, and the Failure of Bureaucracy

This Wednesday
12:30-1:30, Upstairs

William Mitchell and Randy Simmons carefully scrutinize the traditional view of public policy and welfare economics that "market failures" are common, requiring the intervention of government in order to serve and protect the public good. Through the modern theory of public choice, Beyond Politics enlightens the relationship of government and markets by emphasizing the actual rather than the ideal workings of governments and by reuniting the insights of economics with those of political science.

"Throughout the world, publics are looking for a new conception of government and its role. Happily, there is a whole new theory that fills the bill, which economists call 'public choice,' and which is clearly and persuasively presented in the excellent book, Beyond Politics," editor, The Wall Street Journal

Noted Author of The Sexual Brain, Simon Le Vay will speak Tuesday evening at 8:00 P.M., 150 Columbia Hall, U of O.

"Queer Science: The Use and Abuse of Research Into Homosexuality" is sponsored by The Lesbian, Gay & Bisexual Alliance

Simon Le Vay will review the recent wave of biological research that has cast doubt on traditional views about homosexuality. He will discuss the social context of this research—how science has been used to oppress gays and lesbians, but also how it may contribute to the social acceptance of homosexuality. The lecture will be illustrated by slides and by excerpts from his television documentary, Born That Way.
