yards and passed for 92 more. Hawaii optioned for 423 yards of total offense, 281 yards of that coming from the ground attack. The Rainbows ran away with a 36-16 victory.

This weekend's game has the Ducks placing everything on the line to put an exclamation mark on a great regular season.

"They are coming in here with the Rose Bowl on the line," Oregon State head coach Jerry Pettibone said.

The Ducks want to eliminate the memories of last year's sub .500 record, the loss at Autzen Stadium to the Beavers and the dreaded option that has caused so much pain for the defense.

"That's one of the advantages that Oregon State has in the conference," Oregon head coach Rich Brooks said, trying to downplay the possible problems the Ducks might have when facing Oregon State's third-ranked rushing wishbone offense.

TRADITION

Freedom Bowl in 1990, the Ducks went into the 1991 Civil War with a dismal 3-7 record, but faced a young Beaver team that, under new coach Jerry Pettibone, was 0-10. Comprised of over half freshmen and sophomores, the Beavers came to Autzen and handed the Ducks a surprise 14-3 loss, holding them to just 208 yards and giving Pettibone the first of his two career wins against the Ducks.

Pettibone got that second win last year, when the high snap resulted in a sack of Thompson and an Oregon turnover on its own 24 yard line with 3:50 remaining in the game. Six plays later, the Beavers took the lead 15-12 on Rahim Muhammad's two-point conversion, and shut the Ducks down for the win.

The history is there. The Ducks and the Beavers have had some hard-fought games, a few blow outs and one or two sloppy contests, but all were rich with tradition. With the Ducks holding a 47-40-10 lead over the Beavers, the two teams play their 98th Civil War game on Saturday at Parker Stadium, as Pettibone looks for a third victory against Oregon in four games, and Brooks looks to clinch his first ever Rose Bowl.
