

1995 ROSE BOWL® STUDENT TICKET INFORMATION

A University of Oregon student is allowed to purchase one Rose Bowl ticket for his/her personal use only.

1. UO student tickets for the 1995 Rose Bowl are available for purchase beginning Monday, November 21 at 9:00 a.m. at the Duck Ticket Office at the Len Casanova Athletic Center. Sales end Friday, December 2 at 6:00 p.m.
2. Each ticket is $48.00 plus a $2.00 handling charge. All seats are sold on a reserved seat basis.
3. Only cash, checks or money orders will be accepted. Checks or money orders should be made payable to UO Athletic Department. Checks must be the personal checks of the student applicant (i.e. no checks from parents, friends, etc. will be accepted).
4. 6,000 student tickets are available on a first come first serve basis. Tickets must be purchased in person. No phone orders accepted. A current UO photo I.D. card must be presented.
5. All Rose Bowl tickets are sold on a reserved seat basis. Therefore, UO students wishing to sit together MUST purchase their tickets at the same time. All must be in person, and each student must submit their own payment. One check cannot be submitted for two or more tickets.
6. Each student must be currently enrolled for the 1994 Fall Quarter. Students will be verified to ensure eligibility for tickets.
7. At the time of purchase, a voucher will be issued. Students must claim their tickets at the Rose Bowl in Pasadena, California. Each student MUST APPEAR IN PERSON and present his/her voucher and current UO photo I.D. card. One student may not pick up a ticket of another student. There are no refunds for unclaimed tickets.

Claim UO student tickets at the Rose Bowl Gate B ticket booth.

"The first home game I went to, we kicked BYU's ass," said architecture student Lyn Travis. Travis was referring to Oregon's 32-16 upset victory over Brigham Young in 1990. "I want to begin with a bang and end with a bang."

Travis, Seely and Dyer all agreed that spending the night in twenty degree weather was the most eccentric move they have ever made for a football game.

Then again, all agreed that the Ducks going to the Rose Bowl was just as unexpected.

"This season's been different," Seely said. "It's been fun. To see the support the team's been getting, it's been really great. We want to be there (at the Rose Bowl) win or lose. We want to have a great time."

Jason Brown, a business major, arrived at the Casanova Center late Sunday afternoon with his buddies from Sigma Nu fraternity.

"It's all worth it," he said. "This is a once in a lifetime opportunity. I'd camp out for a week to get tickets."

Interested in Health Education?

Become a Peer Health Educator and organize presentations on health issues, such as HIV/AIDS and nutrition, in a small group of motivated peers. By counseling other students on fitness, weight management, and other health topics, you can make a difference. You'll improve your public speaking techniques when you organize presentations and workshops. Finally, when you write articles for the newsletter Well Now, you will provide health information for the campus community.

This class offers six upper division credits for the year (2 per term) through EDPM.

Call the Health Education Office at 346-4456 and find out how to register.
