OREGON OFFENSE

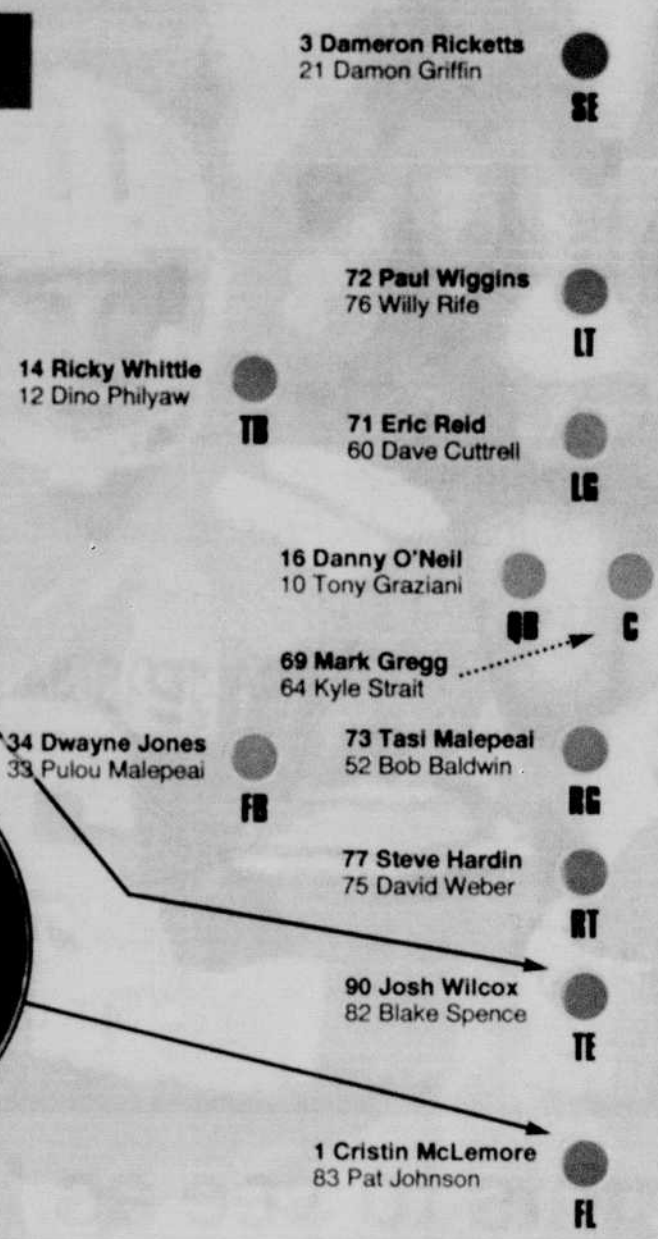

■ Wilcox

■ Mac vs. Penn State secondary

Cristin McLemore quietly logged into the Oregon record books in 1994 with 19 career touchdowns. As Danny O'Neil's prime target, McLemore's effectiveness will depend on Penn State's success in shutting down the junior flanker.

■ QB Kerry Collins vs. Gang Green

Touted as possibly the best quarterback in the nation, Collins faces one of his toughest challenges of the year against the surprising Oregon defense. The Ducks intercepted their opponents 19 times while giving only up 17 points a game in 1994.

One of the keys to containing Collins will be the pressure of the Oregon defensive line. If Collins is given too much time, it could be a long day for Gang Green.
