

The Rose Bowl was jam-packed in 1958 as the heavily favored Ohio State Buckeyes took on Oregon.

1958: The official souvenir program of the "Granddaddy of them all."

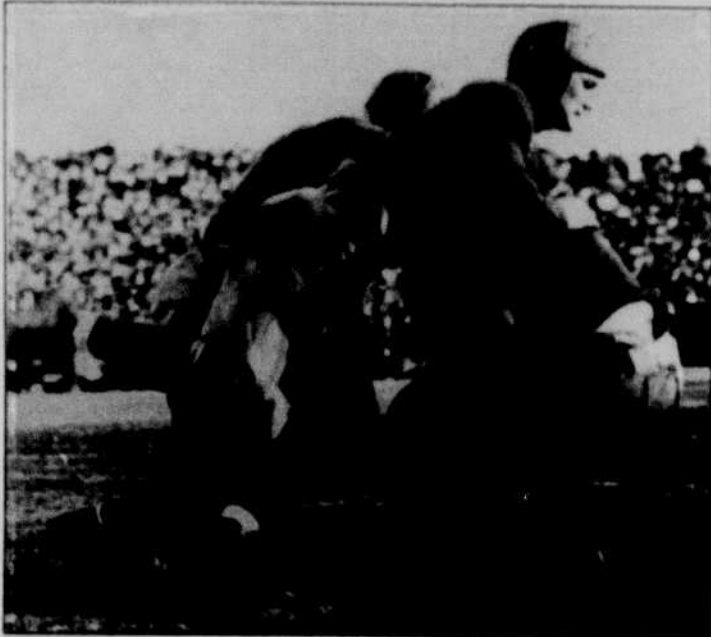

Not even the onslaught of Duck merchandise could help the Ducks beat the Buckeyes.

Past Glory

The 81st Rose Bowl features two teams that have been strangers to Pasadena for many years. Oregon last played in the classic in 1958 and Penn State's last appearance was in 1923. Penn State wasted little time getting back to Pasadena after only joining the Big Ten Conference a year ago.

1917: Hollis "Spike" Huntington gets tackled in Oregon's 14-0 victory over Pennsylvania. Huntington played in three Rose Bowls in four years.

1920: Hubert Howe, faculty representative to the Pacific Coast Conference, enjoys some of the traditional pregame activities on a trip to Hollywood Land to visit celebrities. Oregon lost the 1920 Rose Bowl to Harvard 7-6.

INSIDE

Finally

Oregon head coach Rich Brooks has finally reached his long-time goal of taking the Ducks to the Rose Bowl. In his 18th year at the helm, Brooks has led the Ducks to four bowls since 1989.

10B

1994: The Ducks' miracle season	3B
The legendary Hugo Bezdek	6B
The financial impact of the game	7B
Penn State year in review	8B
Joe Paterno - more than a coach	12B
The Ducks' last time around	13B
A Rose Bowl travel guide	15B
The offensive weapons	18B
Rose Bowl commemorative coin	23B
A small wonder	24B
Comprehensive bowl preview	25B

The Matchups

When Penn State's powerful offense takes the field against Oregon's Gang Green defense on Jan. 2, two of the nation's better units will collide.

16B