Foreign Language Teacher Preparation at the University of Oregon

The University of Oregon's College of Education is now accepting applications for its post-baccalaureate teaching license program in French, German, Japanese, Latin, Russian, and Spanish. Graduates are certified to teach their language specialization, kindergarten through twelfth grade, in Oregon and other states. Students start the program Summer '95 and complete it the following Spring. (Other options are possible.) Program coursework can be applied toward an interdisciplinary master's degree in foreign language teaching.

For further information, please call (503) 346-3481, come to Education 170 (ask for Linda Kelm), or write: University of Oregon, DLIL-College of Education, Foreign Language Teaching License Program, Eugene, OR 97403-1215

Special Education Teacher Preparation at the University of Oregon
