the third week of the conference season undefeated for the first time since 1976-77.

Oregon head coach Jerry Green seems to relish the opportunity facing his team, even with nearly every statistic going against the Ducks.

"This year, we've done away with some of the records that have been stacked up against us and this is another opportunity to try to get rid of another one," Green said.

The Greenballers nearly escaped Gill Coliseum with a win, but Jelani Bolins hit a de-peration 30-footer at the regulation buzzer to send the game into overtime.

Oregon State eventually took a 101-91 double overtime decision in a wild game that found Oregon down to only five available players to finish the contest.

The Beavers seem ready to contend their home-court after overcoming USC in overtime and nearly toppling UCLA in Gill Coliseum during last week's Pac-10 games.

"We've got our work cut out for us," Green said. "We are particularly impressed with Mustapha Hoff because he's such a good low-post player. We also think Brent Barry is having as good of a year as he has had anytime during his career."

Hoff leads the team that has always posed a problem for the Ducks. He leads the team in scoring (20.8) and rebounding (7.8) and is among the league leaders (first and seventh, respectively). Barry adds four assists, seven rebounds and nearly 19 points a game (fourth in conference).

"We're fighting to win because we've made some advances, but we've still got a lot of room to improve. I think the more successful we are, the more confident we are going to be," Green said.
