

The Pizza Pipeline.

Quick Service and a Fair Price™

SLAM DUNK DEALS

EUGENE HOTLINE 686-5808

824 Charnelton Street

The Best Pizza in Town

BRAND NEW!

HOT WINGS!

Six piece order
ONLY $2.00

Choose either Hot Wings, Tricky Stix or salad, only $2.00 with order!

Free Delivery
Including UO
Campus!

Any 16"
Three Item Pizza
ONLY $9.95

Plus Two (2) FREE 22 oz. Soft Drink

686-5808

Valid in Eugene only. Not valid with any other offer. Sales tax not included. Limited delivery area. Expires 2/1/95.

Free Delivery
Including UO
Campus!

One 12"
Two Item Pizza
ONLY $5.95

Plus Two (2) FREE 22 oz. Soft Drinks

686-5808

Valid in Eugene only. Not valid with any other offer. Sales tax not included. Limited delivery area. Expires 2/1/95.

75¢ slices available from 10:30 - 4:00.

Veal, Sun Devils spear Washington State, 87-60

TEMPE, Ariz. (AP) — As far as Arizona State coach Bill Frieder is concerned, freshman guard Jeremy Veal isn't a first-year player anymore.

Veal scored a career-high 19 points as the 16th-ranked Sun Devils routed Washington State 87-60 Sunday.

"Jeremy Veal became a sophomore," Frieder said. "He gave us a great lift off the bench. He was sensational."

Washington State (10-7, 5-4) ran out to a 9-2 lead in the first four minutes. But Veal scored five of his 10 first-half points to key a 15-1 Arizona State run, and the Sun Devils led 17-10 with 10:41 left in the first half.

"Coach (Frieder) told me if I've got an open shot, I can take it," said Veal, who was 7-of-10 from the field, including three 3-pointers. "If somebody tells you to take the shot if you're open, it gives you some confidence."

Arizona State (16-5, 6-3) led 32-28 at halftime before Washington

State rallied to tie the game.

Isaac Fontaine scored four quick points for the Cougars, including a layup that tied it at 36. But the Sun Devils then took control, outscoring the Cougars 32-10 over the next 11:34 to take a 68-46 lead.

Veal scored seven points during the run and Ron Riley made three consecutive 3-pointers.

"It was nice to see us knock some shots down in the second half," Frieder said.

Riley, who missed eight of his first 10 shots, finished with 20 points and six 3-pointers.

"Sometimes you just start to feel it," Riley said. "It's all part of being a shooter."

Arizona State, which beat Washington State for the first time since 1992, shot 61.5 percent in the second half and forced the Cougars into 20 turnovers for the game.

The Sun Devils, who posted their third straight victory, connected on a season-high 47.6 percent of their 3-point attempts.

"They were the better team at every position," said Washington State coach Kevin Eastman. "[Forward Mario] Bennett comes in and kicks your butt ... and then 20 percent 3-point shooters started hitting their threes."

Bennett had 24 points and 14 rebounds, and set a school record with 23 free-throw attempts. Bennett missed seven of nine free throws in the first half, but finished 12-of-23 from the line.

"I had a lot of courage after watching our free-throw shooting exhibition in the first half to design plays for Mario in the second half," Frieder said. "But he's our horse. If he keeps missing them, I don't care. I'm going to keep going to him."

Bennett also blocked six shots, moving within 16 blocks of former Arizona center Anthony Cook's single-season conference record.

Fontaine finished with 19 points for Washington State.

Fiery O'Bannon leads UCLA in rout over Notre Dame

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Ed O'Bannon showed a side of himself never seen at home and rarely displayed on the basketball court.

O'Bannon's outburst over a hard foul on a teammate in the second half inspired seventh-ranked UCLA, which went on to rout Notre Dame 92-55 Sunday.

O'Bannon, a mellow father who cradled his 10-month-old son in his lap after the game, turned into a roaring tiger when he saw a teammate go down.

Point guard Tyus Edney was driving to the basket when he was knocked to the floor by Irish forward Derek Manner. He winced in pain, prompting O'Bannon to rush at Manner. O'Bannon was held back by several teammates before receiving his third technical this season.

"From where I was standing it looked like it was intentional. That's why I reacted the way I did. It's bad on my part," a remorseful O'Bannon said.

His younger brother, Charles, said Ed isn't a fighter.

"He's more of a protector and he was just protecting his teammate," Charles said. "That's a side of him that comes out on the court."

After Edney sank both free throws, Ryan Hoover did the same for the Irish, who were awarded possession but failed to score and trailed 40-31.

"It was a hard foul. I felt it after it happened and I guess it looked bad, too," Edney said. "It fired the whole team up seeing him do that. We took that energy and transferred it to our play."

UCLA coach Jim Harrick didn't feel as good as his players about O'Bannon's action.

"Ed's got to control his emotions in a different manner," Harrick said. "I wish Ed wouldn't have done that."

"It was uncalled for Ed to do that to Manner," Notre Dame coach John MacLeod said.

The Bruins (14-2) led by just two points after a sloppy first half in which UCLA shot 32 percent and Notre Dame committed 16 turnovers. But they got hot to start the second half, building a 38-29 advantage as the Irish (13-8) missed their first five shots.

It was the most lopsided outcome between the schools since the Bruins won 114-56 during the 1971-72 season.

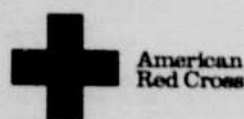

Edney is recovering from the flu that caused him to miss Thursday's game against Southern Cal, ending a 79-game streak as a starter. He struggled in the first half with no assists before finishing with 15 points and five assists. Freshman Toby Bailey also had 15 points.

Manner led the Irish with 11 points. Pat Garrity, their leading scorer, was held to nine points and Hoover added nine.

to your HEALTH

CPR/FIRST AID WORKSHOPS

$12 Fee Includes: 4 hour class
• instruction booklet
• Red Cross CPR Certification Card

For registered UO students only.
Cancellations must be 24 hours in advance or student will be charged for workshop. Students signing up for First Aid must have current CPR card prior to classtime. Classes held in Student Health Center Cafeteria.

Upcoming CPR/First Aid Workshops

Mon., Feb. 6 (CPR) 5:30-9:30 pm
Tues., Feb. 7 (CPR) 5:00-9:00 pm
Wed., Feb. 15 (First Aid) 5:00-9:00 pm

Women's Clinic

(second floor, Student Health Center)

We offer:

- Healthy Women exams (annual Pap smears)
- STD counseling and screening
- Infection checks
- Contraceptive advice and methods including hormonal (birth control pills, Norplant, Depo-Provera injections) and barrier methods (male and female condoms, spermicides, diaphragms, cervical caps)
- Emergency contraceptive pills
- Management of menstrual disorders and other gynecological problems
- Menopausal concerns

Emergency contraceptive pills, also known as the "morning after pill," have been used for several decades to decrease the risk of pregnancy when unprotected vaginal intercourse occurs. It must be started within 72 hours of the unprotected intercourse.

Female and male medical practitioners.
Feel free to bring your partner!
Call 346-4449 for an appointment.

FREE Cholesterol Screening

is available on Tuesdays 9:30-11:30 am in the Health Education Room at the Student Health Center.

The recommended total cholesterol level should be below 200mg/dl. Since February is National Heart Month, do your heart a favor and get your cholesterol checked.

STUDENT HEALTH CENTER • 13TH & AGATE • 346-2770