

A Reading & Booksigning
— Li-Young Lee

Indonesian-born poet and award-winning author Li-Young Lee will be reading from his works, including his newly released first book of prose, the winged seed, a remembrance.

wednesday • 7:30 p.m.
in the Gumwood Room at the EMU

"The Winged Seed is a parable of inheritance, a book of intense and abiding metaphysical questions, a work that magically breaks a legacy of silence to excavate and exorcise the past, to understand its sufferings and divine its meanings. It has true spiritual importance for contemporary American literature."—Edward Hirsch
