Notice of Public Hearing

University of Oregon ADA Self Evaluation

The Americans with Disabilities Act requires a self evaluation which assesses institutional policies and practices to identify those that might discriminate against people with disabilities or prevent participation in university activities. The self evaluation also sets forth remedies for removal of barriers to university programs and services. In addition, the ADA requires the opportunity for public comment on the self evaluation

The Disabilities Issues Administrative Council (DIAC) has prepared the University of Oregon Self Evaluation and is now soliciting public comment before preparing the final version. Written comment will be collected until March 31, 1995. Please send to Linda King, Office of Human Resources at the address below. A public hearing will be held on March 14, 1995 at 4:30pm in the Gumwood Room/Erbe Memorial Union on the University of Oregon Campus. Requests for accommodation for this hearing should be made to Chris Brown, 346-2964 by March 10, 1995.

Copies of the self evaluation are available in Human Resources (Room 463, Oregon Hall. 346-3159), University Planning, Academic Advising and Student Services, Office of Affirmative Action and Equal Opportunity, and on reserve in the Knight Library. It can also be found on Gopher (on Internet) under Duck Scoop/ Administration/Human Resources/ADA Self Evaluation. For alternative formats or questions, call Chris Brown at 346-2964.
