

A Booksigning upstairs with

UO Assistant Professor of Creative Writing,

Chang-rae Lee

This Thursday from 12:30-1:30.

—& A reading & signing at 7:30 p.m.
in the UO Gerlinger Lounge.

Sponsored by the Creative Writing Dept.

Chang-rae Lee will be upstairs at the bookstore to sign copies of his newly released book, Native Speaker. Born in South Korea, Chang-rae Lee immigrated to the US with his family at the age of three. A graduate of Phillips Exeter Academy and Yale University, he received his M.F.A. degree from the UO.

"From the wounded love of Asian-Americans for their nation, from the lilt and hiss of our languages, Chang-rae Lee has composed a moving, edgy new blues. This music drives his suspenseful story of spies, politicians, and lovers in a novel of extraordinary beauty and pain. Mr. Lee's talent, compassion and wisdom light up these pages, which are nothing less than brilliant." —Frederick Busch

PHOTO
Spring Special!
20% Off
All Photo Albums!
through April 14th

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON
BOOK STORE

FREE!
5x7 or 8x12
Enlargement

from a 35mm negative
with each roll of film
developed in our ExpresStop™
One Hour service.
through April 7th

20% Off!

All Regularly Priced
Backpacks
through April 8th

13th & Kincaid

346-4331