LOUIE'S VILLAGE

WHERE THE EAST MEETS THE WEST

Louie's Village is a family restaurant serving Chinese and American food, and specializing in Cantonese and Szechuan dinners. It is owned and operated by Mr. and Mrs. Louie and family, originally from Canton, China.

A variety of combination dinners are available, and you can choose from several appetizers, such as pot stickers, egg rolls, and barbecue pork, as a beginning to your meal. Specialties include Louie's Special, Chow Mein with Beef, and the Chinese stir-fry with fresh vegetables. The house special, Chow Yuk with shrimp, chicken, barbecue pork and fresh vegetables, is also recommended. Two-Family Dinners come with rice and tea, and are ideal for two or more. American dishes are also available and include seafood and chicken fried steak.

Louie's Village is decorated with beautiful Oriental lanterns, Chinese paintings, and pictures made of shells, and has enough room to seat up to 400 people. The restaurant also has a bar and lounge, and offers party and banquet services.

Hours are 11:00am-10:30pm Monday-Thursday, 11:00am-midnight Friday, noon-midnight Saturday and noon-10:30pm Sunday. The average cost of dinner is $6.50. Visa, Mastercard and Discover are all accepted. Louie's Village is located at 947 Franklin Blvd., 343-4480. Plenty of parking can be found right off Franklin Blvd. And yes, Louie's Village is wheelchair accessible.
