

A Booksigning with Jack Nisbet

Saturday, April 8th from 1:30-2:30 Upstairs

Resident of the Inland Northwest, field biologist, natural history teacher and author, Jack Nisbet will be here to sign copies of his newly released book, Sources of the River, Tracking David Thompson Across Western North America. Sources of the River, is a true story of adventure, recreating the life and times of David Thompson—fur trader, explorer, surveyor and mapmaker from 1784-1812.

"Jack Nisbet tells Thompson's story superbly... Sources of the River goes immediately onto my short shelf of best books about the Pacific Northwest."—Murray Morgan, author of Puget's Sound
