1995 NBA PLAYOFFS

Atlanta
HAWKS
vs.
Indiana
PACERS

Season series: Indiana won 4-1.

KEY PLAYERS

Atlanta: Mookie Blaylock (17.2 points, 7.7 assists, 2.5 steals), Steve Smith (16.3 points).

Indiana: Reggie Miller (19.6 points), Rik Smits (17.9 points, 53 percent field goal shooting), Dale Davis (9.4 rebounds, 1.6 blocks).

OUTLOOK:

After beating Atlanta in the second round on the way to the Eastern Conference finals last year, the Pacers are confident they can get at least that far again. Even though Miller slumped late, the postseason is his time. Smits is having his best season yet, and the Hawks have no one to stop him inside.

Los Angeles
LAKERS
vs.
Seattle
SUPER-SONICS

Season series: Los Angeles won 4-1.

KEY PLAYERS

Los Angeles: Cedric Ceballos (21.7 points, 8.0 rebounds), Nick Van Exel (16.9 points, 8.3 assists), Vlade Divac (16.0 points, 10.4 rebounds).

Seattle: Shawn Kemp (18.7 points, 10.9 rebounds), Gary Payton (20.6 points, 7.1 assists, 2.5 steals), Detlef Schrempf (19.2 points, 51 percent 3-point shooting).

OUTLOOK:

Seattle got a psychological boost from a 16-point win at the Forum on April 18 after four straight losses to the Lakers. A young Los Angeles lost its focus at season end, dropping 7 of 8 after a surprisingly strong season.

Houston
ROCKETS
vs.
Utah
JAZZ

Season series: Utah won 3-2.

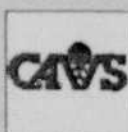

KEY PLAYERS

Houston: Hakeem Olajuwon (27.8 points, 10.8 rebounds, 3.4 blocks), Clyde Drexler (21.4 points), Vernon Maxwell (13.3 points).

Utah: Karl Malone (26.7 points, 10.6 points, 54 percent field goal shooting), John Stockton (14.7 points, 12.3 assists, 54 percent field goal shooting), Antoine Carr (9.6 points off the bench).

OUTLOOK:

This is a rematch of the 1994 Western Conference finals, won by Houston in five games. But this Utah team has won a club record 60 games and taken the last three meetings with the Rockets, including two games last week.

Cleveland
CAVALIERS
vs.
New York
KNICKS

Season series: Teams split 2-2.

KEY PLAYERS

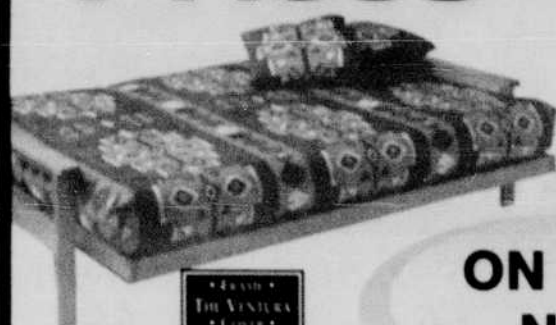

Cleveland: Tyrone Hill (13.8 points, 10.9 rebounds), Mark Price (15.8 points, 91 percent foul shooting), John Williams (12.6 points).

New York: Patrick Ewing (23.9 points, 11.0 rebounds), John Starks (15.3 points, 217 3-pointers), Charles Oakley (8.9 rebounds).

OUTLOOK:

Despite the season split, these are two teams moving in opposite directions. New York won eight of its last 10, and the Cavaliers lost 14 of their last 15 road games amid mounting injuries. Look for plenty of shot clock violations in a matchup of the league's two best defensive teams.
