Browns bid farewell to Cleveland

■ FOOTBALL: Baltimore will be the new home to the Browns

BALTIMORE (AP) — In a stunning deal involving two of the most storied cities in NFL history, the Browns said Monday they would abandon Cleveland and move to Baltimore next season.

It marked the third time in a year that an NFL franchise moved to a city where pro football had failed once before.

And although the words "Baltimore Browns" stirred deep emotions in both towns, team owner Art Modell said it came down to one thing — money.

"This has been a very, very tough road for my family and me," Modell said, with sadness as evident as the joy that Maryland officials, including Gov. Parris Glendening, displayed in announcing the move. "I leave my heart and part of my soul in Cleveland. But frankly, it came down to a simple proposition: I had no choice."

Modell ended 45 years of NFL tradition in Cleveland by signing a 30-year lease to play in Baltimore. The financial plan being offered by Maryland Stadium Authority chief John Moag was too good: a $200 million stadium to be built by the state, up to $75 million in money for moving expenses and state-paid improvements to Baltimore's Memorial Stadium, where the Browns will play their first two seasons.

The news conference was held in the parking lot of what will be the site of a 70,000-seat stadium next to the Orioles' Camden Yards ballpark. It took place with officials cheering in the sunshine — a stark contrast to the March 1984 departure of the Colts. On that snowy night, moving vans clandestinely pulled up to the Colts' training camp in suburban Baltimore and carried the team's equipment away to Indianapolis.

Baltimore's quest for another NFL team ended 10 days ago when Modell and Glendening reached an agreement aboard a private jet at Baltimore-Washington International Airport. Glendening triumphantly waved the contract during Monday's news conference.

"I'm not exactly a stranger to the legacy of the Baltimore Colts. I was in the league when they dominated the scene; I sort of grew up with Unitas, Marchetti, Donovan," Modell said, referring to the nucleus of a team that won world championships in 1958 and 1959.

The Browns have also had their successes, winning four NFL championships, the last coming in 1964 when they defeated the Baltimore Colts 27-0.

"I know what you went through 11 years ago," he told the gathering, "because that's what's happening now in Cleveland and I am deeply, deeply sorry from the bottom of my heart."

Modell said he lost millions of dollars operating the Browns, and he didn't want to use the lucrative Baltimore offer as a bargaining chip — a ploy used by several owners in the past.

"What is required is beyond the capacity of the community of Cleveland," Modell said. "I didn't want to be known as a shakedown artist."
