Issues of Prostitution

Friday & Saturday
November 10 & 11
8:00 a.m. - 4:50 p.m.

2 CREDIT – 2 DAY CONFERENCE

Examination of the social complexities surrounding prostitution; including stereotypes, clientele, health risks, treatment, housing issues, and more... Candid discussions with formerly prostituted males and females will afford you the opportunity of evaluating the issues from an "insider's" perspective.

Professionals and community members may enroll for $40 per day.
Register by coming in person to 333 Oregon Hall, 186 Esslinger, or 180 Esslinger.

Early registration is encouraged.
