Winter Craft Fair

The EMU Craft Center and the Cultural Forum will sponsor the 1995 EMU Winter Craft Fair on Nov. 29 and Nov. 30 from 10 a.m. to 5:30 p.m.

Each year Oregon artists display and sell handcrafted gifts during the fair. This year, in the EMU Fir Room, local artists will also perform live to entertain fairgoers.

The crafts were submitted to the Craft Center and juried by employees of the Craft Center. The artwork on sale includes woodwork, jewelry, stain glass, paintings and fibers. For more information, call the Craft Center at 346-4361.

Holiday Tours

The Shelton-McMurphey-Johnson House begins the holiday season with "Castle on the Hill" tours.

On Nov. 28 from 1 to 4 p.m. and every Tuesday throughout December, tours of the house will occur to mark the holiday season.

Six trees decorate the house, including the Parlor Tree, the Floral Tree, the Victorian Tree, the Night Before Christmas Tree, the Teddy Bear Room Tree and the Wedding Tree. Besides the trees, exhibits of garlands, toys, teddy bears and dolls from around the world, particularly Asian dolls, will be on display.

Art & the Holidays

The third annual Art & the Holidays Membership Show begins on Dec. 9 until Dec. 23 with a special emphasis on children's art.

The Membership Show, an opportunity for community members to buy and sell artwork, is an unjuried venue for local artists. All ages are encouraged to submit a maximum of two pieces on Dec. 4 between 10 a.m. and 5 p.m. or Dec. 5 between 10 a.m. and 7 p.m.

New members are encouraged to submit their work. Artists may want to consider creating projects with their families as a way of focusing on this year's family theme.

Work should be marked with the artist's name and a price, matted or framed and ready to be hung. There is a $5 hanging fee, or an artist can put in an hour's worth of volunteer work and avoid paying the fee.

The Maude Kerns Art Center is located at 1910 E. 15th Ave. and is open from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday. For more information, call 345-1571.
