

Moved to
FAIRGROUNDS
CONVENTION CENTER

WINTER 1996 — 2 Credit/2 Day Conference
Substance Abuse Prevention Program

STALKING

Victims & Predators February 2 & 3

HDEV 407 - CRN 25560 • HDEV 507 - CRN 25561

A look at crimes of predatory behavior, violence and harassment on a local, regional, and national level.

FEATURING: Pete Smerick, former FBI criminal profiler; Behavioral Sciences Unit at Quantico, Virginia and consultant to the movie, Silence of the Lambs, ALSO: George Lardner, Jr., Pulitzer Prize winner, Investigative Reporter for the Washington Post, and author of The Stalking of Kristin, which profiles the stalking and murder of his daughter, Kristin Lardner, a promising art student.

GRIEF, CHANGES, BELIEFS & LOSS

February 10, 1996

302 Gerlinger • 1 Credit
HDEV 407 - CRN 26404/HDEV 507 - CRN 26405

FEMALE GANGS, AFFILIATES & VIOLENT OFFENDERS

February 16-17, 1996

2 Credits - HDEV 407 - CRN 25564 • HDEV 507 - CRN 25565
Learn dynamics of female gang involvement from a psychosocial, law enforcement, and personal perspective. Former female gang affiliates from San Francisco-based Girls Against Gangs will share their personal experiences, as well as presenters from Denver, Boise, and California.

KIDS AT RISK: RESILIENCY AND PROTECTIVE FACTORS

March 1-2, 1996

2 Credits - HDEV 407 - CRN 25556 • HDEV 507 - CRN 25557
Examine the genetic, psychological and social complexities surrounding "at risk" children and teens, as well as the "good stuff" that makes some kids more resilient than others.

FEATURED PRESENTERS: Richard Santana, Consultant and Graduate of Harvard Graduate School of Education, Risk and Prevention Program and Dr. Ken Magid, author of High Risk Children Without a Conscience, The Advice Book, and other publications that challenge our thinking about children's issues and family dynamics.

Professionals and community members may enroll for $40 per day.
Early registration is encouraged. All 2-credit conferences meet 8:00 A.M.—4:50 P.M. on Friday and Saturday.

QUESTIONS?

Call the S.A.P.P. folks at 346-3397 or come to 180 or 186 Esslinger

