

Game: Steelers start scoring drive with second quarter touchdown

turned away quickly as he accepted the trophy. "But this for me was the sweetest."

Switzer, however, was clearly elated. He joined the Cowboys in a no-win situation — only a Super Bowl victory could guarantee success — and he got it.

"Are you having a good time, Jerry?" he asked Jones. "We did it our way, baby! We did it! We did it! We did it! We did it!"

But it was not the way the Cowboys had hoped.

Aikman, who at one point in the first half completed 10 straight passes, tying Phil Simms for second place in Super Bowl history behind Joe Montana's 13, was good early but finished 15 of 23 for 209 yards.

And Smith, whose fourth and fifth rushing touchdowns passed Franco Harris and Thurman Thomas for the most in Super Bowl history, was held to just 49 yards in 18 carries, far short of the 115 he needed to become the leading rusher in Super Bowl history. Twenty-three of his yards came on the third play of the game.

But it was the defense that did it, led by Brown. It registered four sacks, one by Charles Haley, who was playing his first game since undergoing back surgery seven weeks ago. Haley, who was on two champions in San Francisco, became the first player ever to win five Super Bowl rings.

That rush, plus some slippery footing may have been responsible for O'Donnell's problems. He finished 28 of 49 for 239 yards and three interceptions, the last on the game's final play.

But the two to Brown were the ones that hurt. Pittsburgh reached the Dallas 33 on the first possession of the second half. But on fourth and 8, Coach Bill Cowher elected to punt and Rohn Stark's kick carried into the end zone, giving Dallas the ball on the 20.

Dallas didn't move on offense, but then the defense turned the game.

On a third and 9 from the Pittsburgh 48, Dallas' Bill Bates blitzed, both Steelers receivers turned inside, and O'Donnell threw outside, right to Brown. He returned it 44 yards to the Pittsburgh 18.

On the first play, Troy Aikman hit Michael Irvin at the 1, and Smith went over on the next play, although replays indicated he had not reached the end zone until he was already down.

Norm Johnson's 46-yard field goal 3:40 into the fourth quarter cut it to 20-10 after Tony Tolbert's sack of O'Donnell on third and 8 at the 19 stopped Pittsburgh's next drive.

But then came a surprise onside kick by Johnson, recovered by Deon Figures at his own 48. Nine plays later, Bam Morris went over from a yard out and suddenly it was 20-17 with 6:36 left.

The Steelers got the ball back with 4:15 left at their own 32. After an incompletion, O'Donnell threw the pass that Brown intercepted, setting up the clinching touchdown.

The Cowboys dominated the first half, scoring on their first three possessions.

But they led only 13-7 at halftime when O'Donnell, shaky for most of the first two periods, hit Yancey Thigpen from six yards out with 13 seconds left before intermission.

Horoscope by Frances Drake

For Monday, Jan. 29, 1996

ARIES (March 21 to April 19)
Business affairs are favored during daylight hours. Social plans look lively after the sun sets. The accent is on partnership interests, and agreements are easily reached.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20)
It's not a good time for having guests over. You and your loved one are in sync and can overcome a family worry. On the job, take time to clear up those loose ends.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20)
You need to find ways to improve your long-range financial security. If you haven't already done so, look into investments that can help you in retirement. At night, social interests are favored.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22)
Sticking close to home is a good idea. You are motivated to get things done, especially with work. Go after what you want out of life.

LEO (July 23 to Aug. 22)
Home life is highlighted. However, some could be faced with an unexpected trip that is likely to be longer than desired. Try not to keep people waiting in the evening.

VIRGO (Aug. 23 to Sept. 22)
You're being a bit too generous with a friend who is taking advantage of you. At the same time, you find ways to improve your financial position. A loved one is cantankerous.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22)
You have extra incentive, especially concerning your career. A project you're working on is about to achieve fruition. While it's been a long haul, the rewards are tremendous.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21)
Meetings and career dealings are favored early in the day. Later, people aren't as cooperative and are likely to be contentious. Higher-ups, in particular, need to be handled with kid gloves.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21)
Any progress you make is done early in the day. Later, signals are crossed and misunderstandings are likely. Social activities highlight your evening.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 19)
You need to make some changes at home, whether in your routine or in your decor. Get-togethers with friends are favored. However, be sure to leave credit cards home.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20 to Feb. 18)
You're busy in the early hours pursuing activities of a mental nature. You can come up with a solution to a problem on the job. A phone call you're waiting for has you anxious.

PISCES (Feb. 19 to March 20)
You're not happy with what you get done. However, each step you make is real progress. You're gutted the ball rolling. You're a bundle of energy.

YOU BORN TODAY are a natural go-getter. You're happy only when you can be doing something. Others envy your energy and just can't seem to keep up with you. You have trouble understanding why everyone around you is so slow! Your gift of gab serves you well in business and in the arts. You achieve success through show business, advertising, writing, sales or teaching. Early in life, you need to find focus.
