■ SENTENCING: Vernon Maxwell will probably avoid serving his jail time until an appeal is filed

HOUSTON (AP) — Philadelphia 76ers guard Vernon Maxwell was sentenced Monday to 90 days in jail after failing to meet court orders on a marijuana possession charge.

However, Maxwell's attorneys moved quickly to file an appeal, making it unlikely that the 30-year-old would see the inside of a jail cell just yet.

Maxwell shook his head but said nothing as County Court-at-Law Judge Don Jackson issued the sentence — three times the punishment sought by prosecutor Lance Long.

Last Oct. 30, Maxwell pleaded no-contest to a misdemeanor charge of marijuana possession. He was ordered at the time to complete drug rehabilitation and submit to regular drug testing, requirements he failed to meet.

Maxwell also failed to return more than 25 telephone calls made to him by the Harris County probation office.

Jackson said Maxwell's disregard of the guidelines prompted him to mete out the stern punishment, radio station KTRH reported.

"Mr. Maxwell did not avail himself of the time period," the judge said.

Attorney Jim Cooper quickly worked to arrange Maxwell's appeal bond of $20,000. The 76ers were to play the Vancouver Grizzlies in Philadelphia Monday night.

Once his bond was paid, Maxwell was to be released by the court pending his appeal, which must be filed within the next 30 days.

Nina McElroy, a 76ers spokeswoman, said the team had no comment.

"It's a personal matter," she said. "It's got nothing to do with the team."

Maxwell was arrested on the marijuana charge last August after a Houston police officer pulled him over in the city's nightclub district for running a red light. More than a gram of pot was found in his 1995 Mercedes convertible, police said.
