All-America: California freshman Abdur-Rahim selected to third team

19.6 points, 12.3 rebounds and 3.8 blocks this season while playing 37.6 minutes per game.

"I have worked hard this season, and there is some sense of fulfillment in being named an All-American, but at this time I'm more concerned with our season and the NCAA tournament ahead," he said. "After that's all over, I'll perhaps take time to consider my personal honors."

Kittles, a 6-5 guard who averaged 20.5 points, 7.1 rebounds and 3.5 assists this season, became Villanova's career scoring leader in the opening game of the Big East tournament.

It was his first game back after serving a three-game suspension for unauthorized use of a university telephone credit card.

"For as long as I can remember it has been a dream of mine to be a first-team All-American," said Kittles, a second-team selection last season. "This definitely makes my senior year special."

Keith Van Horn of Utah led the second team with 189 points and was joined by Tony Delk of Kentucky, Danny Fortson of Cincinnati, Jacques Vaughn of Kansas and John Wallace of Syracuse.

The third team featured two freshmen — Stephon Marbury of Georgia Tech and Shareef Abdur-Rahim of California — Lorenzen Wright of Memphis, Brian Evans of Indiana and Jason Sasser of Texas Tech.
