Election: ASUO ticket supports brew pub

I'd like to get involved."

Kantrowitz and Bostic both support the creation of an EMU brew pub because it would provide a forum for students to have fun together on campus. The existence of campus traditions is sorely lacking, they say, and opportunities like the pub should be fought for.

Kantrowitz said the atmosphere surrounding the Rose Bowl last year was a perfect example of what should be a common occurrence at the University.

"There was so much spirit on campus, and that should happen all the time," he said. "People should really feel proud of this school."

Bostic and Kantrowitz say by voting for them, students are providing themselves with different resources that stray far from the status quo present in recent years.

"When you're voting us into office, you're getting people who will entertain different ideas," Kantrowitz said. "That's what student government lacks."

PLATFORM

Kantrowitz and Bostic will work for students on a "grass roots" level, advocating for a 24-hour library and a textbook exchange for students. They also want to demystify student programs and government for the average student and create more campus traditions.
