Junior Dougal Williams was the only Duck to come away with two wins at the Pacific-10 Conference Tennis Championships last weekend in Ojai, Calif.

After defeating Henrik Wagner of Arizona in the opening round, Williams was downed by Eric Tanio of UCLA in the second round 6-4, 6-3.

Williams then teamed with senior Hans Forsberg to notch his second victory of the tournament with a win over Sergio Elias and Oscar Bustos of Arizona State in the first round. But in the second round, Williams and Forsberg suffered a season-ending loss at the hands of Cecil Mamiit and Kyle Spencer of USC.

Juniors John DeVorss and Mike Goldstein, who played at No. 2 doubles for much of the season, ended their year with a first-round loss to No. 19 Jeff Salzenstein and Ryan Wolters of Stanford.

In women's action, freshmen Ali Napier and Shanelle Kaneshiro, the Ducks' only women's doubles team in the draw, lost an opening-round match to Olivia Gravereaux and Vicky Maes of Arizona 6-2, 6-2.

The Pac-10 Championships included seven nationally ranked men's teams and six nationally ranked women's teams.

At the Collegiate Invitational in Ojai, which took place in conjunction with the Pac-10 Championships, junior Jeff Strong led the Ducks with two wins in the singles draw. Strong won his first two matches in straight sets before losing in the third round.

Goldstein and freshmen Miguel Arriaga and Carlos Navarro also competed in the Invitational. Goldstein and Arriaga lost first-round singles matches and Navarro teamed with Arriaga in doubles action but also suffered an opening-round loss.

In women's play at the Invitational, Kaneshiro, sophomore Hannah King, junior Rachel Owens and freshman Jaime Martin all lost first-round singles matches.

Owens and sophomore Caryn Coyle won an opening-round match in doubles play before losing in the second round to Alyson Gray and Shana Gray of UCLA.

Brewers overshadow Seattle's power

■ MARINERS: Jay Buhner and Dan Wilson each homered twice in the loss

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Fernando Vina had two triples and five RBI as the Milwaukee Brewers outslugged Jay Buhner and the Seattle Mariners 16-9 Sunday.

Vina hit a two-run triple off Paul Menhart in the second and added a bases-loaded triple against Mike Jackson in the eighth.

Jose Valentin had four RBI, including a squeeze bunt that broke a sixth-inning tie.

Kevin Seitzer tied it at nine with an RBI double off Tim Davis (0-1). He then stole his first base of the season and scored on Valentin's squeeze single to make it 10-9.

Seitzer drew a bases-loaded walk off Jackson in the seventh for an 11-9 lead. Greg Vaughn, who had three hits and three RBI, added a sacrifice fly and Valentin capped the inning with an RBI single.

Mike Potts (1-1) got his first major league victory with 2 1/3 innings of one-run relief. Davis gave up three earned runs and four hits in 1 2/3 innings.

Buhner had two homers, including a grand slam in the fifth, off Steve Sparks. Dan Wilson also homered twice off Sparks, who gave up eight earned runs and five hits in 4 1/3 innings — four homers and a double. The five hits traveled 1,900 feet — 1,540 on the four homers and 360 feet more on Luis Sojo's double.

Buhner, who led off the fourth with a solo homer, broke a 4-4 tie in the fifth with his seventh career grand slam.

Two-run homers by Vaughn and Matt Mieske in the bottom of the fifth tied it up again and chased starter Menhart, who was tagged for eight earned runs and nine hits in 4 1/3 innings.

Ken Griffey's sacrifice fly in the sixth off Potts gave Seattle a 9-8 lead.

Jose Valentin and Vina each had two-out, two-run triples off Menhart. Wilson's two-run homer in the second, Seattle's first in five games, tied it at two. His solo shot in the fourth tied it at four.

Notes: A fan ran onto the field in the sixth and shook Griffey's hand in center field before being taken into custody ... Wilson, who had nine homers in 399 at-bats last season, has seven so far this season ... The Mariners' 43 homers in April are a record. The Chicago White Sox held the old mark of 38 set in 1984 ... Wilson's only other career multihomer game was April 11 at Detroit, when he hit three homers ... The Brewers had four triples.
