Penny helps Orlando polish off sweep of Detroit

■ PLAYOFFS: The Magic point guard scored 24 points as Orlando advanced to the second round of the playoffs

AUBURN HILLS, Mich. (AP) — Anfernee Hardaway scored 15 of his 24 points in the third quarter Tuesday night, leading Orlando to a 101-98 victory over Detroit and a three-game sweep of their opening-round playoff series.

Shaquille O'Neal went to the bench with his fourth personal foul and the Magic leading 57-55 with 9:18 left in the third quarter. But Orlando, led by Hardaway's six points, went on a 16-6 run over the next six minutes and led by 11 at the end of the period.

"When Shaq went out, Penny said he wanted the ball and he was taking over," Orlando's Dennis Scott said. "And that's exactly what we let him do, because we knew he would do it."

The Pistons' frustration peaked when coach Doug

Collins, who guided the team to 46 wins in the regular season, was ejected after drawing his second technical foul with 2.4 seconds remaining in the third quarter.

Allan Houston scored 33 points for the Pistons. His three-pointer pulled the Pistons within one point with 8.3 seconds left in the game, but Nick Anderson then made two free throws for Orlando.

Detroit had a chance to tie in the closing seconds, but Houston missed a 3-pointer. The Pistons got the rebound but Joe Dumars' shot was blocked at the buzzer.

Seattle 96, Sacramento 89
SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP) — Hersey Hawkins' three-pointer capped a late 9-0 run as Seattle regained control of its first-round playoff series by rallying for a 96-89 win Tuesday night over the Sacramento Kings.

The SuperSonics lead 2-1 in the best-of-5 series, with Game 4 Thursday at Sacramento and Game 5 — if necessary — at Seattle on Saturday.

"It's not over," Seattle coach George Karl said. "Sacramento has really made this a great series."

Trailing 86-83 with 3:31 left, the Sonics scored nine straight points over the next 2 1/2 minutes. The spurt began with two free throws by Hawkins and ended with his three-pointer from the corner.

"We stayed in the game. We didn't lose our belief even though we were frustrated," Karl said.

The Sonics, trying to avoid being upset in the first round of the playoffs for the third straight season, got 17 points from Sam Perkins and 16 from Detlef Schrempf.

Mitch Richmond had 24 points for the Kings, and Tyus Edney added 17. Olden Polynice, playing despite a painful thigh bruise, had 18 points and 14 rebounds.

Houston 104, Los Angeles 98
HOUSTON (AP) — Hakeem Olajuwon scored 30 points and the Houston Rockets used a late 13-0 run to beat the Los Angeles Lakers 104-98 Tuesday night for a 2-1 lead in their opening-round playoff series.

Olajuwon, who fouled out with 10 minutes left in the Rockets' loss in Game 2, stayed out of foul trouble in Game 3, committing only two personals.

He scored six points during Houston's decisive run in the fourth quarter Tuesday night, when the Lakers went scoreless for 6 minutes and 20 seconds.

Reserve Sedale Threatt scored 10 straight points for the Lakers, helping them take an 89-86 lead with 8:22 left in the game. But then the Lakers went cold and the Rockets got hot.

Houston's Robert Horry sank a three-pointer to it with 8:06 remaining, starting the 13-0 run that put the Rockets ahead 99-89. The Lakers didn't score again until Anthony Peeler hit a 3-pointer with 2:02 left.

Elden Campbell led the Lakers with 18 points, while Cedric Ceballos and Eddie Jones each scored 16. Magic Johnson had seven points and 13 assists.

Peeler made two three-pointers down the stretch and Eddie Jones scored the final Lakers' basket with 33 seconds remaining, but the Rockets made just enough free throws to stay ahead.

Hansen: NFL doesn't need any more Neanderthals

the thought that this quick, 6-foot-3, 304-pound lineman was still available in the fifth round and tried to quietly sneak him on to the team, knowing all too well about his rap sheet.

But with the release of Peter, a new standard has been set. One that will surely be followed by various teams around the league.

A standard that tells Neanderthals like Peter "You are not welcome in my city or on my team."

Hopefully, if Peter is not picked up by another team, it will send shock waves through college football locker rooms carrying the message that from now on it will take more than football talent to get you to the NFL.

It will now take something called character, integrity and most importantly, responsibility.
