Hurricane Bertha bears down on Florida

1— JACSONVILLE BEACH, Fla. — Hurricane Bertha churned toward Florida with 105 mph winds Wednesday after missing a predicted turn to the north, and nearly 1 million people along the Atlantic Seaboard were urged to pack up and leave.

An estimated 500,000 people were ordered to evacuate six Florida counties.

A hurricane warning, meaning hurricane-force wind of 74 mph or more or dangerously high tide were expected within 24 hours, was posted from the Cape Canaveral area north to the Virginia state line.

Oregon firefighters battle wildfires

2PORTLAND — Firefighters hope by Thursday to contain a 1,300-acre fire that briefly threatened the central Oregon town of Warm Springs.

Elsewhere, about 220 firefighters fought a 300-acre blaze inside the Mount Jefferson Wilderness area outside of Sisters.

In Eastern Oregon, 80 miles southeast of Burns, a 5,400-acre fire was burning on range land and juniper forests.

Also in Eastern Oregon, firefighters controlled a 2,270-acre grass fire started by lightning on federal lands in the remote high desert east of Jordan Valley. That is now controlled.

Mother charged with negligence for death

3MEDFORD — A homeless woman has been charged with negligent homicide in the death of a 6-year-old boy who died when the woman's car ran off a 100-foot embankment because it allegedly had no brakes.

Amarylla Kate Burrell, 19, was driving outside the small community of Ruch on Tuesday when the car plunged off the embankment.

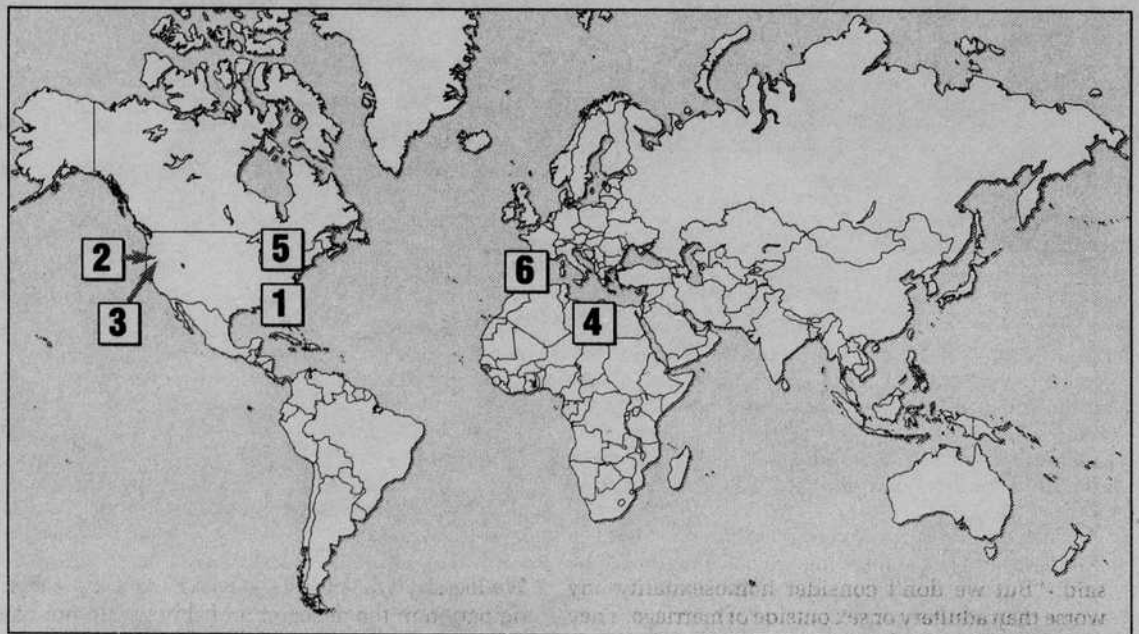

Peter Escalante Zamora III was crushed in the wreckage.

Burrell was released from the Jackson County Jail, where she had been held on $15,000 bail pending arraignment in Jackson County District Court.

Serbs block mass grave excavation

4SARAJEVO, Bosnia-Herzegovina — Finnish forensic experts were forced to abort their excavation of a mass grave in eastern Bosnia because Serbs blocked their work.

The Bosnian Serbs failed to keep promises to provide security at Kravica, 10 miles west of Srebrenica. The work would be too dangerous without such guarantees.

A separate excavation of mass graves continued in nearby Cerska, where 40 bodies had been found by late this afternoon.

A team from the U.N. war crimes tribunal began work Sunday guarded by the NATO-led peace force.

Kevorkian assists in another suicide

5DETROIT — Dr. Jack Kevorkian helped a 39-year-old woman with multiple sclerosis commit suicide with a drug injection and took the body to a hospital himself, confident that the "era of harassment and persecution" is over.

It was the 33rd suicide in which Kevorkian has taken part since 1990. In practically all of the previous cases, the patients died by inhaling carbon monoxide.

Kevorkian and another doctor took the body of Rebecca Badger of Goleta, Calif., to Pontiac Osteopathic Hospital late Tuesday.

No immediate charges were filed. None have been filed in the last several suicides.

Spaniards no match for running bulls

6PAMPLONA, Spain — Nine Spaniards were injured Wednesday during Pamplona's famous running of the bulls and one celebrant was found dead, apparently of an alcohol overdose.

The body of Jose Antonio Alda, 42, was found in the Plaza del Castillo, where many revelers sleep during the nine-day Fiesta de San Fermin.

State television said the man died of an alcohol overdose, but police said the cause and time of death could not be determined with certainty until after an autopsy.

A total of 28 runners, including seven foreigners, have been treated for injuries during four days of bull runs.
