Plane crash in Netherlands kills 26

1 EINDHOVEN, Netherlands — A cargo plane carrying members of a Dutch military band crashed Monday at Eindhoven air force base, killing at least 26 people.

At least 11 others were injured and four missing after the U.S.-built Hercules C-130 crashed and burned on the side of the runway.

Argument turns into police standoff

2 SWEET HOME — A man armed with an assault rifle held police at bay outside his rural Linn County house Monday morning.

Investigators said the gunman had argued with his wife earlier Sunday and allegedly threatened her. She had left the house before police arrived.

Stampedes trap worshipers in India

3 NEW DELHI, India — Worshipers who gathered to pray for protection on an astrologically unlucky day were trapped in stampedes Monday at two Hindu shrines. A total of 58 people died, some crushed and others impaled on a bamboo barricade.

At least 100 others were injured, hospital workers said.

Aerobics instructor shot during class

4 FLORISSANT, Mo. — Pandemonium erupted Monday when a man fatally shot an aerobics instructor, then fired at her class of 20 or so women at a suburban St. Louis fitness center.

Laura West, 32, of Overland, was shot three or four times and killed. No one else was hurt. Police were looking for her ex-husband.

Summer airfare wars heat up across West

5 SAN FRANCISCO — Travelers lined up at dawn Monday to take advantage of $25 one-way tickets on Southwest Airlines — and several of their competitors.

Telephone lines were jammed for the fourth day in a row and people waited hours to get tickets under Southwest's 25th anniversary promotion.

Miss America viewers can call in their vote

6 ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. — As a follow up to last year's call-in votes on the swimsuit competition, the Miss America Pageant will allow viewers the opportunity to vote during the Sept. 14 telecast on NBC.

Viewers will help choose five finalists from the field of 10 semifinalists. The calls will cost 50 cents apiece.
