Park to be illuminated for holidays

The first annual 'Festival of Lights' will take place at Orchard Point Park in December with lights, music, food and a Santa's Workshop

By Nicole Krueger
Entertainment Editor

When night falls Dec. 13 to the 29, Orchard Point Park won't be dark. Instead, it will be ablaze with the first annual "Festival of Lights."

Fifty trees, five buildings and several static displays will brighten the holiday season with their colorful lights. Local Lions Clubs and Lane County Parks are sponsoring the five-acre walk-through festival, which is centered around the theme "We're Lighting the Park So Others May See." In addition to the light displays, visitors can take a trip to Santa's Workshop, located in the Marina Boat House, where they will find both Santa and Mrs. Claus — and, of course, toys.

Carolers from local churches, schools and service groups will provide the music, and refreshments can be purchased in the form of homemade cranberry bread, pumpkin and sweet potato pie and other holiday treats.

The park gates will open at 5 p.m. each evening and will close at 10 p.m. Sunday through Thursday and 11 p.m. Friday through Saturday.

The Lions are requesting a donation of $2 for individuals and $5 for families. Contributions will aid the Lions in their various community service projects, including buying eyeglasses and hearing aids for the needy and funding cornea transplants and seeing-eye dog training and placement.

Orchard Point Park is located on Fern Ridge Reservoir on Clear Lake Road, about six miles from the Highway 99 junction.

Vaudeville show to provide entertainment

By Nicole Krueger
Entertainment Editor

Children ages 3 to 103 are invited to enjoy a wacky holiday performance at the Lord Leebrick Theatre Company Dec. 6 through the 22.

The fourth annual "Old Time Vaudeville Holiday Show" will provide an entertaining evening for families and individuals looking to receive a dose of holiday cheer.

The cast is full of Lane County artists.

Professional vaudevillian Mitch Hider will act as master of ceremonies. Hider is also a whistler and ukulele player. By popular demand, the Toss-A-Lot Twins will return to the show with their juggling act. Singer Doug Perrin will sing and play old-time favorites, and Ellie Branford will hula.

The LLTC Comedy Players will contribute to the evening with fire-eating, scating, storytelling and merry mischief. Lord Leebrick himself may even make an appearance.

Audience members may purchase a variety of holiday treats at the concession stand.

They can also win prizes in the show's nightly holiday raffle.

The "Old Time Vaudeville Holiday Show" will be performed Fridays and Saturdays at 7 p.m. and Sundays at 2 p.m. Tickets are $7 for adults and $5 for children and are available at the Hult Center Box Office and the Lord Leebrick Theatre.
